Holy Land Good Friday Collection

Every day Christian families in the Holy Land try to live holy lives as we do. They live where Christ walked and taught. Unfortunately, it is still a land of war and destruction. Because of this, the Christian population is dwindling. The Franciscan Friars share in the upkeep of the sacred shrines and holy places. The collection on Good Friday is for the Holy Land mission and these faithful people and the shrines. Please be generous.

Partnership – in – Faith Prayer

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings and protection on the people of Sacred Heart parish. We, your children at St. Patrick's, invoke your name on their behalf. We are grateful for all you have given us and in return we are mindful of those who have less than we do. Bless us all and keep us close to you. May the example of your Son, Jesus Christ, be the strength that will make us one in you. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Cardinal's Appeal - 2015
The Annual Appeal is ongoing.

The appeal is now in its final stages. If you have not yet made your donation, please do so. Envelopes for the Appeal are available in the back of the church. Thank you for your generosity to the Appeal.

An Easter Gift to St. Patrick's

Permit a few words about the importance of our Easter collection. Catholic parishes around the country rely on their Christmas and Easter collections for a sizable percentage of their annual income. Indeed, it is no different here at St. Patrick's. Last year, a little over 20% of our annual revenue from collections was given at Christmas and Easter. We hope that you will be as generous as you have been in the past. St. Patrick's thanks you in advance for your splendid generosity.

Holy Week 2015

Sports have always been a big part of my leisure time. I played all four of the so-called “major” sports: baseball, hockey, football and basketball. The first two I played the most and liked the most. In later years I took up skiing and golf. Of them all, the only one I actively pursue now is golf. Because I took part in baseball and its derivatives the most, and because I coached it on the high school level, I not only like it the most, but feel I know it best. The principle seems to be that the more you take part in something – as opposed to just watching it – the more you will know it and like it.

I think the same is true in the spiritual life. For example, one can talk about and read about prayer, but actually praying is the only way to become involved in spiritual growth.

This leads me to Holy Week and the rich liturgies of the Church. The only way to appreciate them fully is by actually taking part in them. Permit a few examples.

We start tomorrow with Reconciliation Monday. Come to any church in the Archdiocese of New York (or Brooklyn or Rockville Centre) and you will be able to receive the wonderful mercy and forgiveness of Jesus in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It's one thing to read about the mercy of God, but here's a chance to actually experience it. That's tomorrow, March 30th, from 3pm to 9pm. Come anytime.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week form what is called the Sacrum Triduum (in Latin, the sacred three days). We are meant, again, to be participants in what is celebrated, not just spectators.

This is unique in our experience, because the events commemorated during Holy Week are ancient: the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. How can we participate in them? Since they happened 2,000 years ago, can we but remember them as we recall what happened to Jesus? How can we do more than that? We can do more because we are both invited to do so, and are given the power to do so, by God's grace and favor.

We celebrate these events: Holy Thursday with the Last Supper, Good Friday with Jesus' Passion and Crucifixion, and Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday with the Resurrection, we celebrate them as the Body of Christ. If it happened to Christ, it happens to us as members of His Body. When Jesus establishes the Eucharist, we take part. It is our Body too. When Jesus suffers, so do we. When Jesus carries the cross, so do we. When Jesus rises, so do we. All of this, because we are part of Christ's Body.

Of course this is dependent on our will; on whether we wish to participate like this. We can merely watch on the sidelines, should we so choose. “Were you there when they crucified my Lord?” is the question asked by the famous hymn. Please Lord, let me answer in the affirmative. Next to this column is printed the Holy Week schedule. Please plan to join us throughout the week as the mysteries of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection are once again played out in each one of us.

Words of Pope Francis

“Palm Sunday, Jesus enters Jerusalem. The crowd of disciples accompanies him in festive mood, their garments stretched out before him. There is talk of the miracles he has accomplished and loud praises are heard: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!” (Luke 19:38).

Crowds, celebration, praise, blessing, peace: joy fills the air. Jesus has awakened great hopes, especially in the hearts of the simple, the humble, the poor, the forgotten, those who do not matter in the eyes of the world. He understands human sufferings, he has shown the face of God's mercy, and has bent down to heal body and soul.

This is Jesus. This is his heart, which looks to all of us, to our sicknesses, to our sins. The love of Jesus is great. And thus he enters Jerusalem, with this love, and looks at us. It is a beautiful scene, full of light—the light of the love of Jesus, the love of his heart—of joy, of celebration.”
