

Dear Parishioners,

Today, thank your mom for being open to life, and for introducing you to eternal life thru God's Church. A fitting way to honor this gift is to learn more about our Catholic faith, which we can do by joining the parish flock note catechism study. This begins May 16th with two short paragraphs six days a week. Join by early Monday morning to receive a table of contents of the Compendium Catechism of the Church showing the weeks during which we will be reading each section. Just eight times during the year, I will provide summaries of significant sections, but every week I hope to introduce the paragraphs we will be reading in the upcoming week. This may be particularly helpful for people who want to read along but don't want to get extra emails!

We don't have to study the faith in any particular way — but all Catholics have the obligation to review and study the Faith with deliberation. Our Compendium Catechism Flock Note will make this easy for you, and I am confident that you will enjoy it.

Fr. Dubrouillet

Hands to Heart Prayer Shawl Ministry: Little did we expect our Prayer Shawl Ministry to blossom as it did! April 23rd, 2014, many ladies gathered for our first meeting to make shawls, lap blankets, long afghan and baby items. To date we have given away 97 items. God has provided us with wonderful, talented ladies. Four dedicated ladies crochet 4 or 5 items a month along with the other members making their contributions. There was a need to provide 66 (this figure is not included in the above 97) blankets to a dialysis center and with the dedication of the group the goal has been met. Recently we had a request to provide shawls to a cancer center. Thank you to everyone for the hours you spend crocheting to bring love and comfort to those in need.
