

Catholic Church of St. Luke

4408 Highway 86 Easley, SC 29642

April 16, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

The apostles left everything to follow Jesus when He called them. When they saw Him risen from the dead and received the Holy Spirit, they changed from fearful cowards to bold witnesses.

We encounter the risen Jesus in the sacraments — and most powerfully in the Eucharist. How has your life changed from these encounters? How is Jesus calling you to change? Pray to know the answer, and do not be afraid!

Joyful Easter,

Fr. Jim

GRIEVING? All parishioners are invited to hear Allie Young from HAVEN of HOPE speak on Thursday, April 20 at 6:30 p.m. on grief & the grieving process. Our regular CWO meeting will follow this presentation.

Our MASTER's Gardeners will meet for coffee & a plant/seed exchange on Saturday, April 22, at 9:30. All parishioners (new or experienced gardeners) are always welcome to attend. We learn by doing & sharing. If you are able, please bring a breakfast snack to share!

A BLOOD DRIVE is scheduled for April 23 from 10am- 2pm after Mass at St. Luke. All who are 17 years or older can be donors. Please call/email Aggie King at 855-0168 or aggiem@gmail.com to schedule a donation time. This drive is being held in conjunction with a pancake breakfast. Great time for fellowship.
