Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners — and Visitors!

As summer moves along, let's pray for safe travels for all on vacation. Before travelling, you may want to check out masstimes.org to find a Catholic Church near your destination. I suggest that you also call the parish during office hours and confirm the time of the Mass. We do our best to keep our web-page up to date — but we can't change the information on masstimes.org. You may even want to arrange to go to confession to a different priest....

Soon we will be publishing our fiscal year end reports. Thanks to all who support our parish. Many people have found online giving to be convenient — we have certainly found it to be helpful!

By the way — the glaring and easy to find mistake in last week's bulletin: It was not Zechariah but Simeon who predicted that a sword would pierce Mary's soul! Congratulations to all who noticed!

Again, I pray that you can have a safe and relaxing vacation!

Fr. Jim Dubrouillet
