BULLETIN NEWS –
JULY 28-29, 2018

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD
SENIOR CITIZEN'S CLUB:

Our next senior luncheon will be on Wednesday, August 1st. As always, the luncheon is immediately following the 12:10PM Mass and we will let the seniors know where they should meet on Wednesday.

Reminder: We are always seeking donations for the senior club. Because we can no longer hold the coffee socials and luncheons in the rectory dining room, we have been taking the seniors to various restaurants/cafes within Little Italy. Since we are now taking up table space, we essentially are regular customers, and we need money to pay for whatever the seniors order. The restaurants and cafes have been more than generous and have been giving us discounted checks, but we still need money to pay even a discounted amount. Please consider donating to our senior program. Everyone seems to love these outings and we would hate to have to curtail them due to lack of funds. Thank you in advance for your support!

SAINT PADRE PIO SHRINE AREA: Donations are also being sought for the St. Padre Pio Shrine area in our church. There is a gaping hole in the mirror-tiled ceiling which needs to be repaired; after the repairs are complete, we will need to replace the missing tiles. If we cannot find a match to the current tiles, the entire ceiling will have to be replaced. Although the ceiling is small in area, it will not be small in price. Please consider donating to help repair Saint Padre Pio's Shrine. Again, thank you in advance for your support.
