JANUARY 29-30, 2019

2019 WEEKLY ENVELOPE

BOXES are located on the round table, on the left side as you enter the church. Please pick up the box with your name and number the next time you are in church. Before placing your weekly donation envelope in the basket, please make sure you specify MPB Church and that you have either your name or your envelope number written on it. Last week, there were two $20 donations with NO name and NO number on the envelopes; it’s impossible to record a donation in the computer without this information. For anyone who does not currently use the envelope system but wishes to start, please either call the office or come in and a box and number will be assigned to you. The office number is 212-226-6427.

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD SENIOR CITIZEN’S CLUB will hold its February luncheon on Wednesday, February 6th. As always, lunch will be immediately after the 12:10PM Mass, beginning at approximately 1:00PM. Of course, as this is winter and snow and ice are always a possibility, these plans fall under the category of “weather permitting”. We’ll keep you informed of any change in plans.

THE 2019 MASS BOOK finally arrived. Please feel free to send or bring your Mass requests to the office. We will do our best to accommodate you regarding requested dates, but please bear in mind we only have two Masses per week and some of your requested dates may have to be changed to the next closest date. Thank you for your patience and understanding.
