Stewardship Quote

Jesus healed ten lepers in today's Gospel. Only one (ten percent) came back to say thank You. I, too, have received many blessings from the Lord—indeed, all I am and all I have is gift! How and how often have I remembered to thank Him?

Pope's Intentions for October

Universal: Journalist

That journalists, in carrying out their work, may always be motivated by respect for truth and a strong sense of ethics.

Evangelization: World Mission Day

That World Mission Day may renew within all Christian communities the joy of the Gospel and the responsibility to announce it.

Read about these stories in the October 9 Witness

- With the visit the sick 'work week' coming up for the Year of Mercy, we will be featuring some efforts around the archdiocese to live out this work of mercy.
- Sister Anne Clifford, a religious studies and philosophy professor, was the first speaker at the ISU Catholic Studies lecture series in Ames. She focused her talk on "Catholicism and Islam: Seeking a Deeper Understanding"
- A member of St. Joseph Parish in Marion reflects one year later on her family's trip to see the pope during his U.S. visit

Immaculate Conception, Sumner

Congratulations to Jackson and Graydon Leete (sons of Daniel and Angela Leete) who were baptized this past Sunday in Sumner. May God bless these newest members of our church.

Thanks to all who helped with and participated in the Institution of Acolyte for the Permeant Diaconate this past Tuesday eve. And, congratulations to Michael Schemmel on making this final step on the path to ordination next May.

A big THANK You to those who watered the flowers on the west and south sides of the church from May to September. They looked beautiful all summer long thanks to your help. Many parishioners and community members commented on their beauty. Those helping were Deanna Joeegen, Jane Tucker, Margaret Teeling, Pam Rochford, Nancy Meyer, Barb Tisue, Sally Yungtum and Barb Hennessey.

Cluster Announcements

Archbishop Jackels asks that each parish in the Archdiocese take a count of persons attending Mass for four weekends in October. This annual gathering of information can help parishes in planning Mass schedules that encourage quality and prayerful celebrations. It will also be helpful in Archdiocesan planning to assure the availability of sacraments, religious education, and active faith communities in light of the number of available priests.

Sunday, October 9, Cluster Parent Reconciliation Meeting, 5:00 pm at St. Peter, Clermont. This meeting is for all parents of second grade students of St. Joseph the Worker Cluster.

Come pray the Rosary with us! All in the cluster are invited to pray for world peace and the leadership of our country at a Rosary rally at St. Francis Saturday Oct. 15, 3:00 pm. NOTE CHANGE OF TIME. Prayers will last about 1/2 an hour, and will be followed by coffee and cookies. Anyone who wishes to stay for the 5:00 pm Mass can remain in the hall and visit.

Opening Prayer

May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
