Peace and blessings to us all in the Cluster of St. Joseph the Worker, I will leave for vacation on the 23rd of October and be back the 27th of November. While I am gone Fr. Dan Knipper has graciously accepted to cover the Cluster for weekend Masses. He will also be our contact priest within the period of my vacation. My special thanks to those members of our parishes who help out with Word & Communion. May I kindly ask that they continue to offer this noble service during the period of my absence. While on vacation I will be praying with the Cluster as we honor our families and friends at the Mass of Remembrance scheduled for the 27th of October. Please, accept my special blessing and prayers for Thanksgiving 2018. The staff of the Cluster are available to take care of your concerns and will be happy to facilitate any particular need. Please pray for me as I invoke the intercession of St. Michael and St. Raphael for journey, mercies and protection.
