The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 7, 2016

So my dear friends, Lent begins on Wednesday. Let us prepare ourselves for Ash Wednesday as we live our forty day journey of prayer, self denial and sacrifice. The two important aspects of Lent involve a journey through prayer and a journey through sacrifice so that we can be purified and made evermore open to the will of the Lord. Every year I try to take on a prayer experience and an experience of sacrifice because sacrifice without prayer has little effect. Again this year I am praying and meditating upon one Station of the Cross per day. I invite you to join me in this prayer experience. Every year until now our parish has sacrificed for a different charity. This year we would like to help and support special needs children, young adults and adults. For any of us with a special needs family member we know how difficult it is to secure a strong program for them and give them the ability to work, socialize and develop in a strong, caring and professional environment. The local outreach program we have decided to help is Employment Horizons located in Cedar Knolls. Employment Horizons provides jobs for adults with special needs. We have also decided to help P.G. Chambers School, located in Cedar Knolls, a school that educates special needs children from Kindergarten through 8th grade. We look forward to having a representative from both facilities come and speak to us at Mass to explain their programs. We will divide our Lenten sacrifice equally between both facilities. As usual, I'm making a supreme sacrifice this year!!! You all know my big weakness is ice cream, which I will give up from Ash Wednesday until Easter Sunday. As usual I will put $20.00 aside each week and on Palm Sunday we will have the collection to help support both special needs programs. I encourage you to join me in this endeavor.

We are offering several prayer opportunities this Lent. Please consider the following:

- Ash Wednesday is February 10th. Please see inside the bulletin for the Mass/Liturgy schedule.
- Daily 9:00am Mass
- Wednesday, February 24th at 7:30pm in St. Margaret's in Morristown, a prayer service at our pilgrimage church hosting the Holy Doors as recommended by Pope Francis

- Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Tuesday and Wednesday from 8:00am – 8:00pm in the Divine Mercy Chapel

- Lenten Scripture Study with Deacon Vin will take place for your convenience on Wednesday mornings 9:30am with the same session repeated on Thursday evenings at 7:00pm. Sessions take place in the cafeteria. Please see inside the bulletin for more detailed information.

For your convenience we have placed a guide on how to go to Confession along with an Examination of Conscience in the book rack located in the foyer of the church. Please note a prayer sheet to pray the Stations of the Cross is also available in the foyer.
