Divine Mercy Sunday April 23, 2017

We gather on this Divine Mercy Sunday to celebrate this beautiful devotion instituted by Pope John Paul II. I invite and encourage all parishioners to come today (Sunday) from 2:15pm to 3:15pm to praise God's compassionate love for us and to seek His divine mercy on behalf of all humankind. Deacon Michal will preside at the holy hour and I will be available at the confessional for those who were not able to make Confession during the Lenten Season.

As we celebrate this second week of Easter, we rejoice in the Risen Christ. During the long weeks of Lent, we sacrificed through prayer and action. We missed those special treats which we had denied ourselves. As usual, I gave up ice cream and other things for Lent. Although difficult, the sacrifice certainly helped me to strive towards holiness. In our own sacrifices, we grow in holiness and are more able to empathize with Christ's suffering on the cross. Now we can certainly enjoy the cookies, the candies, the ice cream and the many gifts which God has bestowed upon us. Let's never however, take these gifts for granted. Let's always appreciate the beauty of our lives and the realization that we truly are a resurrection people loved by God and called to love each other.

I was deeply touched by your generosity to the Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem. For those of you who haven't sent your Lenten sacrifice to either us or directly to the Holy Family Hospital, please do so as soon as possible. I know our sacrificial offering truly makes a difference in the lives of women and babies, most of the adults are the working poor.

A big thank you to everyone who worked with us to prepare our 10th graders for the Sacrament of Confirmation. At dinner after the Mass Bishop commented on how good our kids are and that many of them indeed will be great Catholic leaders of the future.

Today we have our last Religious Ed class until September. Thanks to Bernadette, Gina and all our catechists and helpers for a wonderful year. We look forward to September and are presently taking registrations.

Tonight, Sunday, is our last 9th grade class. I look forward to celebrating at the Bridging Mass tonight as we bring together our present 8th and 9th grades in preparation for a wonderful new academic year to come.

I look forward to celebrating First Holy Communions this Saturday and May 6th. Please keep our 2nd graders in prayer during these exciting days for them.

Prayer Intentions of POPE FRANCIS for April Young People

That young people may respond generously to their vocations and seriously consider offering themselves to God in the priesthood or consecrated life.

Divine Mercy Prayer

Eternal God,
in whom mercy is endless
and the treasury of compassion
- inexhaustible,
look kindly upon us
and increase Your mercy in us,
that in difficult moments
we might not despair
nor become despondent,
but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will,
which is Love and Mercy itself.
Amen

SACRAMENTS

Baptism

We celebrate the sacrament of Baptism most Sundays. Parents are welcome to have the Baptism celebrated either at a week-end Mass or at the Liturgy of Baptism at 1:15. To make arrangements for Baptism please call Father Owen or Fr. Matthew. Godparents must be confirmed and be active members of the church and attend Mass regularly.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Every Saturday at 8:15 – 8:45 and 4:45 – 5:15 (or by appointment with Fr. Owen or Fr. Matthew).

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact Fr. Owen or Fr. Matthew and set up an appointment. Any Catholic couple needs approximately a year to prepare for the Sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the Priest celebrating the marriage and attendance at Pre-Cana conferences.

Sacrament of the Sick / Hospital Visits

At St. Rose we are strongly committed to the spiritual care of the sick. Because of privacy laws, hospitals and nursing homes are not allowed to release the patient's religious affiliation. Therefore, we must depend on families of our sick parishioners to inform us of their whereabouts and condition. Please notify the parish office of any need for a home or hospital visit.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a program for people who seek full initiation in the Catholic Church through the reception of the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation, which are received at Easter Vigil. For information, please contact Fr. Owen or Fr. Matthew at the parish office.
