Weekly Remembrance

The Sanctuary Lamp, which burns near the tabernacle, in church and is the reminder of our Lord's presence in the Most Holy Eucharist, will burn in loving memory of:

Flora & Fred Natale

Also, the altar bread and wine, which will become the Holy Body and Precious Blood of our Lord, was given in memory of Flora & Fred Natale from their Loving Family.

Easter Thank You's

The days of the Sacred Triduum are the most important and significant days of our entire liturgical year! It was so rewarding to see our church full for the services on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday, as well as the Living Stations of the Cross presented by our Youth Ministry.

It takes many people working "behind the scenes," as well as in front, to enable the services to be celebrated with dignity and beauty.

Thank you to all those who worked so hard and long to enable our community to celebrate the Sacred Triduum: our Ushers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Music Ministry, our faithful Saturday morning church cleaners, those who assisted in decorating the church, our Knights of Columbus and Confirmation candidates who set up Father Rugel Hall.

May we continue to celebrate the Easter Festival filled with the new life of the Resurrection and have the Easter Alleluia always on our lips.

Father Wells

! LOCK YOUR CAR !

During the 12:00 Noon Mass on Palm Sunday, one of our parishioners had their car broken into. Our security cameras recorded the thief as he walked among the cars throughout our parking lot and those photos were turned over to the Wayne Police.

Please always remember to lock your car while it is in the parking lot and you are in church. Do not leave any items of value visible in the car either.

St. Paul Inside the Walls

A brief informational presentation will begin promptly at 1:00pm, followed by the opportunity to tour the campus, meet our community and explore all that Mary Help has to offer. Both prospective freshmen and transfers are welcome at this event.

You may register for this event online or by email to admissions@maryhelp.org.

Spiritual Reflection

A Broken Heart

So what is the trouble for this man in the Gospel? His doubts echo through history. We often assume that he was just a tough guy who had trouble trusting, but it would help you and me in our own doubts if we could understand more about someone who couldn't believe in the resurrection.

We call him Doubting Thomas.

First, who was he? His real name in Aramaic, Te'oma (Thomas), meant twin, and he was also called Didymus, which meant the same thing in Greek. So he likely was a twin, perhaps of Matthew.

He might have been a bit glum. For instance, he gave a practical but gloomy response when Jesus wanted to go back to Judea after Lazarus died. None of the disciples wanted to go there, because they knew the leaders had tried to stone Jesus (John 10:24-30). Now Jesus gave some high-minded talk about how much they would learn by going, but Thomas ignored these reasons. His sarcastic reply is a perfect picture of him: "Alright, let us also go die with him" (John 11:16).*

Here Thomas reminds me a bit of Joe Btfsplk, the famous Al Capp cartoon character from yesteryear who walked around with a perpetual rain cloud over his head!

Much later, just before the passion, Jesus will say, "Where I am going you know the way." This was really a spiritual statement about going to the Father, but Thomas took it literally (John 14:3-6). He gives a very matter-of-fact response, but rooted in emotion. To summarize, he says, "You're talking in secrets! We can't follow you if don't say where you are going! Help us."

Thomas loved Jesus doggedly, that is for sure. But he feared the dangerous situations that Jesus always walked right into. Thomas' practical nature looked frankly at them and drew the pragmatic, pessimistic conclusion. Thomas the twin had twin emotions, love and fear.

Is it any wonder, then, that in this Sunday's Gospel Thomas laid down unflinching requirements for believing in the resurrection? Take a look. His worst fears already had come true: Jesus had been killed. To deal with this sorrow Thomas resolved to accept the death stolidly. He would never slip and talk about his departed friend in the present tense, as if he were still here. Thomas the pragmatist knew that Jesus was dead and gone. Thomas had predicted it.

Then came the new news.

"Didymus, Jesus is alive! You were away, but suddenly he stood there among us even though all the doors were locked! He talked to us!"

No. NO! Thomas' heart could not accept it. He wanted it too much. He could not bear to believe it.

Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

This is exactly in character for Thomas/Didymus. These tough words are really a protection for a heart that would break in pieces if it were fooled by another false hope. "The only way I would believe such nonsense is if you give me absolute proof."

Jesus gave it. Fingers in nail marks, hand in side.

Thomas had always belonged to Jesus. Yes he was cynical, but when he got the practical proof he needed, he sank to the ground in heart-rending surrender.

"My Lord and my God."

What a great story for us at Eastertide.

John Foley, SJ

* Jesus then told them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep, but I am going to awaken him." So the disciples said to him, "Master, if he is asleep, he will be saved." But Jesus was talking about his death, while they thought that he meant ordinary sleep. So then Jesus said to them clearly, "Lazarus has died. And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him" (John 11: 11-15).
