SUNDAY, JULY 3, 2016
14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c

Isaiah instructs the people of Jerusalem to rejoice, because God would restore her prosperity. The people will better understand God's power through their homeland's restoration.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

Paul describes the sign of the cross of Jesus as all that is significant. Following the old laws is unimportant. Instead, being baptized in Christ and adhering to his ideals is what matters most.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Jesus sent forth seventy-two disciples to preach his good news, telling them "the harvest is rich, but the workers few." He also gave them detailed instructions on how to act towards the people. Jesus then reminded them not to be happy because of their power over evil, but to rejoice in the salvation they would achieve.

Craft Fair Elves Need Your Help

St. Ann's elves are in need of your new and desirable items to fill the marvelous baskets for the 7th annual Craft Fair tricky trays. Perhaps you have something received in the past which you have never found a use for or color which just doesn't go with anything in your home. Remember, someone else's "unused gift" is someone else's treasure! Items as well as gift cards can be dropped off at the office during the week between 9:00 am- 3:00 pm or placed in the Church library on the weekend. Baskets, colored tissue paper and shredded paper are also needed.

A THOUSAND THANKS

Just a short note to express my deep appreciation for all those who came to the 10:30 Mass and waited patiently in line. Thank you for your gifts, kind notes, words of support and affirmations. I was deeply impressed by the young people whose notes came from their hearts; simple but profound. I truly enjoyed being the spiritual leader of St. Ann's for the last seven years. Special words of thanks to our staff and all those who gave so unselfishly of their time, talent and treasure. My new address is: Good Shepherd, 48 Tranquility Road, PO Box 464, Andover 07821 and my email is athairtadhg@gmail.com.

How to Meet People
And Improve Your Mind

If you ever wanted to join a book club, but haven't been able to find one to suit your needs, look no further your search is over. The doors to new friendships, adventure and knowledge begins at St. Ann's Book Club. The next meeting is July 14 at 10:30 am in our library. The book we are now reading is The Art of Hearing Heartbeats by Jan-Philipp Sendker. Following is a synopsis : When a successful New York lawyer suddenly disappears without a trace, neither his wife nor his daughter, Julia, has any idea where he might be until they find a love letter he wrote many years ago, to a Burmese woman they have never heard of. Intent on solving the mystery and coming to terms with her father's past, Julia decides to travel to the village where the woman lived. There she uncovers a tale of unimaginable hardship, resilience, and passion that will reaffirm the reader's belief in the power of love to move mountains.

If you are free during the summer and are interested in being part of the group please call 973-884-1986.

To the beautiful people of St. Ann Church,

Words seem so inadequate to express my gratitude for the outpouring of love I experienced this past Sunday. I wish I could have composed myself to speak to you then, but I know I wouldn't be able to pull it off...so I will do the best I can here.

Thank you for your beautiful plaque (I will treasure it), cards, gifts, kind words and reception. Never in my life have I ever been on the receiving end of something so beautiful and heartfelt. The love I felt was palpable. I was overwhelmed with emotion. My years at St. Ann's have been a blessing to me - when I first started I didn't know what to expect - I had no experience as a secretary (thanks for your patience with my typos!). Sr. Frances' words were so kind and generous, but I assure you - I got back more than I gave. What I received from all of you can never be quantified. What a beautiful thing it is when strangers become friends and friends become family...and that is how I feel about all of you. I fell in love with the people of St. Ann's - you sure are a special group of people! That is why it is so hard to leave; I am not leaving a "job" I am leaving a place filled with people that I care about and love. I will carry you sweet people in my heart. Know that you will all be in my prayers. They say you never really leave a place or person you love ~ part of them you take with you, leaving part of yourself behind. This could not be more true, you all left a handprint on my heart and I will never forget you. God bless you all, be well and live happy!! (and if you are ever in Buffalo...call me!!)

FIVE WAYS TO PREPARE FOR MASS

Taking the time to prepare: Most events in life require preparation. When you go on a trip, you get to the airport early so you can get through security. When you go to a concert or sporting event, you arrive early to find your seat. When you host a party, you make sure you have all the right food and supplies. Preparation is important for a successful day at work, school, or even at the gym. Getting in the right mindset, anticipating what might happen, and setting goals for what you want to achieve is a recipe for success. It helps you feel a sense of security, readiness, and satisfaction.

The same holds true for Mass.

1. Know why you are there. The Mass is a liturgy. Liturgy comes from the Greek word, "the work of the people". You come to Mass not as a spectator but as a participant.
2. Reflect on the readings. Set aside a few minutes on a specific day each week to read the First Reading, the Psalm, the Second Reading, and the Gospel for the following weekend. What is the Lord saying to you in these readings? Is there something that you are being asked to do? Is the Lord leading you in a new direction?
3. Think about your offering. When you come to Mass you bring everything that you are to the altar as an offering to the Lord. What joys will you share? What sorrows would you like to unburden? How have you used the gifts you have been given?
4. See yourself as part of the community. Your experience of the Mass begins the moment you arrive at church. Plan to get there a little early. Outside of the church, smile and speak to the other people who are arriving, keeping in mind that everyone in the parish community is part of the Body of Christ. As you enter the church, bless yourself with holy water. Making the Sign of the Cross with holy water is a reminder of your baptism, which made you part of the Body of Christ. It is through your baptism that you can participate in the fullness of the Eucharistic celebration.
5. Enter into God's presence. Spend some time in silence before Mass begins. Quiet your mind. Let go of any tensions or anxieties that you brought with you. Think about how you purposely avoided food for an hour before Mass. One reason for this fast was to create in you a feeling of hunger for the Eucharist. Allow your soul to yearn for the Lord. Ask God to fill all of the empty places inside you. Invite the Holy Spirit to speak to you in the readings, the music, the homily, the prayers of the Mass, and your Communion meditation.

When you take the time to prepare for Mass, your attitude begins to change. The Mass becomes much more than something that you do every weekend. Your mind discovers a deeper appreciation for the mystery that you experience during the liturgy, your heart becomes more open to God's love, and your soul becomes more receptive to the graces that God is bestowing upon you.
