Memorial Day Service at St. Colman Cemetery

Please join us on Monday, May 30, 11:00am at St. Colman Cemetery for a Memorial Day Service to honor our veterans and deceased friends and family.

Father Hartge, along with the Fayette County Honor Guard, will honor our veterans with a presentation of a wreath, a 21 Gun Salute and "Taps".

All deceased will be honored with prayer and song at the beginning and end of this 30 minute ceremony.

The Bishop's Annual Appeal Update

As mentioned in Fr. Hahn's letter, we are striving for a parish goal of $33,216.95. This would give us $10,000 towards the funding of improving our Parish Campus. In order to accomplish this goal of $33,216.95, Fr. Hahn is asking each household to once again consider a gift of at least $350 ($30/month). Thank you to those who have returned your pledges! We have met the Diocesan goal in pledges!! Thank you for your support and generosity! Now we only have $9,865.95 to reach our parish goal.

From the Parochial Vicars Desk...

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. This is one of the central and most important mysteries of our faith. It can only be known by being revealed to us, that is, the Trinity couldn't be known by reason alone. The Trinity is one. We don't confess three Gods. The three persons of the Trinity are really distinct from one another, and importantly are relative to one another. That is they are relational. "In the relational names of the persons the Father is related to the Son, the Son to the Father, and the Holy Spirit to both. While they are called three persons in view of their relations, we believe in one nature or substance [of God]" (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) 255).

We know we're made in God's image and likeness (Gen.1:26-27). We can also see that concretely in our bodies. We're made to be relational and are made for communion with God and with one another. For instance, we learn to speak the English language not in isolation but through interactions with other people. We're made to communicate the love of God to one another in many different ways depending on the relationships we have with others. Husband and wife communicate this differently than boyfriend and girlfriend. Likewise the relationship of father and son is unique, and expressed differently than two best friends. We're also made in His likeness. His likeness is restored to us when we are baptized into his divine life. "[In baptism] we share in the life of the Holy Trinity here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal life (CCC 265).

On another note, on Saturday, May 28, three new priests will be ordained for the Diocese of Columbus at St. Joseph Cathedral. This is always a very joyful celebration, and we thank almighty God for the gift of three new priests to serve our diocese. Please keep in your prayers this week Deacon Tim Lynch, Deacon Stephen Smith, and Deacon Dan Swartz as they prepare for priestly ordination. It won't be long after that when our very own Brett Garland will be ordained to the diaconate and then to the priesthood.

In Christ,
Father Hartge
