Good Friday Walking Stations of the Cross.

Many facets of faith and justice will be the focus of the annual Good Friday Walking Stations of the Cross.

The walk begins with opening prayer at St. Joseph Cathedral at 8 a.m., Friday, March 30. Hundreds from across the Diocese will process to locations throughout downtown Columbus to recognize Jesus Christ's suffering and crucifixion as well as to reflect on current areas of social concern.

This is open to all ages. For more information, contact Social Concerns at 614-241-2540 or Youth and Young Adult Ministry at 614-241-2565.

From the Desk of the Parochial Vicar...

On Monday we have our Lenten Penance Service at 7:00 p.m. Below is an excerpt from a recent issue of the Catholic Times with some helpful tips for going to Confession from Fr. Geoffrey Brooke, Jr.

- 1. Prepare with an examination of conscience. "Just as it is with tests and interviews, so it is also true with confession," Father Brooke says. "It is better to prepare."
- 2. Arrive early. "Confessions are no different than life. 'You snooze, you lose,'" says Father Brooke. Get there early to avoid a long line so you don't feel rushed, he adds.
- 3. Be specific, but not too detailed. "The church asks us to confess our sins in both kind and number," Father Brooke explains, but that doesn't mean providing unnecessary information.
- 4. Remember, it's not a counseling office. If you walk out of confession saying the priest's advice was terrible and questioning the value of the sacrament, then there's a problem, says Father Brooke. "If you need counseling, make an appointment with the priest. If you want God's healing grace, go to confession."
- 5. Try not to over-explain. You don't have to explain the theology behind why what you did is a sin, Father Brooke says. But if you're unsure, it's better to ask.
- 6. Go regularly. Father Brooke recommends going to confession once a month so that individuals "grow in self-awareness and in their relationship with God."
- 7. Fear not. Don't worry, Father Brooke says "the priest doesn't desire to remember your sins." Focus on the bigger picture and "be not afraid of receiving God's merciful love."

We will have five priests here to hear your confessions. You don't have to be here when the service begins at 7:00pm. You can arrive later as we are usually here until 8:00pm.

The Church asks us to receive Holy Communion at least once per year during the Easter Season. We're also expected to receive communion worthily, that is without serious sin that we're conscious of. So, please take advantage of this opportunity to make a sacramental Confession.

In Christ,

Fr. Hartge
