From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

We warmly welcome Bishop Campbell as he celebrates our Saturday evening Mass, and administers the sacrament of Confirmation to our youth. Anytime a member of the body of Christ receives a sacrament, the whole body is lifted up. I know they have been well-prepared, and will receive these graces from the Holy Spirit.

Happy Father's Day to our fathers in the parish! Your example is indispensable in the lives of your children, and those who look up to you as a father figure if you are in any kind of mentoring or coaching role. Taking St. Joseph as your model and guide will help you as fathers. St. Joseph models contemplative prayer as he quietly led the Holy Family in the early verses of Sacred Scripture. He is also called the terror of demons because when King Herod sought to kill the child Jesus, he immediately rose up and took him away to protect the new born King. As fathers and protectors, you have the same opportunity and responsibility to protect those entrusted to you and lead them to the safety of Jesus' embrace. I hope you take time to thank God for the gift of your fatherhood, and to enjoy some time to relax with your family this Sunday.

In Christ,
Fr. Hartge

Thank you!!

The Women of St. Colman have completed another annual rummage sale collecting $2070.50 (the most profit ever)! A big THANK YOU for all that YOU did to make it a successful one...whether you gave us your gently used items to sell, worked before or during the sale, supported the snack bar, helped us afterward to clean the Parish Hall or to load "leftovers" onto the St. Vincent de Paul trailer, or you simply came by to purchase things! It all helped! Profits from the yearly sale go a long way to help the Women with funeral lunch costs and with buying special items for our church.

It should fit into a quart-size zip-lock bag and be clearly marked with your child's name. Thank you!
