Memorial Tree for a Loved One Planted in the Cemetery.

The St. Colman Cemetery Board is accepting memorial contributions in memory of a loved one as they begin to replace trees along the front of the cemetery. Each memorial is $200. This includes the cost of the tree as well as the plaque that will be placed at the base of your tree. The Board will select the trees, plant and care for them. You will not need to maintain your tree(s).

Complete a "Tree Memorial Form" from the back of church along with your $200 check made payable to St. Colman Catholic Church. Please do not include this on your weekly offertory check as they are two separate bank accounts. Return your form and payment in a separate envelope marked "Tree Memorial" and drop it in the collection basket.

The trees will be planted and plaques installed this fall. Please contact Tina in the Parish Office or one of the Cemetery Board members if you have questions. Board members include: Phil Evans, president, Jim Garland, vice-president, John Boylan, Ron Burkhard, Vicki Ream and Ann Winkle.

Preferred deadline is October 1.

... helping with the Mass as a Server, Lector, Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist, Usher or Greeter? Please consider serving our parish in one or more of these capacities. We would like to grow these stewardship teams as we move into Fall. If you are interested, contact Tina in the Parish Office. It's an easy, convenient way to GIVE BACK to the Church while you attend Mass. It's a great way to serve our parish!

Five First Saturdays Devotion

Devotion in our lives should lead us to greater devotion to our Lord. Just as Mary told the servants at the wedding in Cana to “do whatever he tells you,” so too does she direct us to be attentive to her son when we seek her help. When we participate in these devotional practices, we do not do so with superstition that we will be miraculously granted some request. They assist us in deepening our devotion to our loving God, and desiring to model our lives more closely on Jesus.

The 5 First Saturdays devotion that Our Lady requested at Fatima in 1917 is like a religious formation program, according to the late Fr. Andrew Apostoli, CFR. This program consists in four actions that Mary requested over five consecutive months:

1) Go to Confession. - This helps prevent us from growing cold towards our Lord in our hearts, and reminds us that sin really does offend God. Frequent confession, by grace, increases our desire and ability to avoid sin. Confessions will be heard after First Saturday Masses, but the confession can be fulfilled any time within 8 days of the Saturday. See bulletin for confession times.

2) Receive Holy Communion. - This was to combat Jansenism which kept people from receiving Holy Communion due to the thought that we’re so corrupted that we’re not worthy to receive Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

3) Recite 5 decades of the Rosary. - In the home the mother often teaches the children how to pray. So, with the Rosary, Our Blessed Mother teaches us how to pray. This uses the prayer of the lips, vocal prayer. 5 decades is once around the rosary.

4) Meditate for 15 minutes on various mysteries of the Rosary. - This is in addition to the recitation of the rosary. Here we attempt to enter into the heart-to-heart prayer, which truly deepens our personal relationship with Jesus and Mary. How do the mysteries speak to what is going on in your life?

Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. Beginning in September, 5 First Saturday Masses will be offered according to the 1962 Missal of Pope St. John XXIII, commonly called the “Latin Mass” or the “Tridentine Mass.” This form of the Mass, virtually the same as the Roman Rite since the time of Pope St. Gregory the Great, was made more widely available to the Church by Pope Benedict XVI’s Summorum Pontificum of 2007. Offering the First Saturday Masses in this way puts us in touch with the traditions of our forebears in the faith and deepens our appreciation of the Mass in English. Translations will be available at the Masses.

Upcoming Masses:

Saturday, September 1st 8:30 a.m. St. Peter

Saturday, October 6th 8:30 a.m. St. Colman

Details on the remaining 3 Masses to be determined.

The funeral Mass will be celebrated Wednesday, August 22, 2018, at 10 a.m. at the St. Colman of Cloyne Catholic Church by the Rev. Father Thomas Herge, parochial vicar at the church. Burial will follow in the St. Colman Catholic Cemetery. The Women of St. Colman will host a luncheon in the Parish Hall following the burial.

Living the Liturgical Year
Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

August 20: St. Bernard of Clairvaux, second founder of the Cistercians, patron of candle makers and beekeepers

This beloved Abbot is celebrated as the second founder of the Cistercians, the Mellifluous Doctor, the apostle of the Crusades, the miracle-worker, the reconciler of kings, the leader of peoples and the councilor of popes! The beautiful Memorare is ascribed to him and he was known for his great devotion to Our Lady. He was born to a noble French family in the 11th century and many of his brothers and other noblemen followed him to the monastery. He was known for his eloquence in writing and preaching. Read more about St. Bernard at <http://www.ewtn.com/library/MARY/BERNARD2.htm>.

St. Bernard was born near Dijon, the capital of the Burgundy region of France so we will celebrate with a recipe that includes this famous mustard.

RECIPE: St. Bernard Dijon Chicken (serves 6)

Ingredients 1/2 cup butter

- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
- 3/4 cup breadcrumbs
- 1/2 cup grated parmesan cheese
- 2-3 tablespoons parsley flakes
- 4 boneless, skinless chicken breasts, cut in strips

Directions

Heat oven to 375F. Melt butter in small saucepan with minced garlic. After garlic has sautéed, add mustard and mix. Let cool and whisk mixture to combine until creamy. Mix bread crumbs, parmesan cheese, and parsley in shallow bowl or pan. Dip chicken into butter-mustard mix, then dip in bread crumb mix to coat both sides. Place in a glass 9x13 baking dish. Bake uncovered 25-30 minutes, until juice of chicken runs clear.

+St. Bernard ~Pray for us+

Enjoy with a simple salad and a glass of Burgundy in honor of this illustrious saint!

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
