Can you Cook?

We are in need of volunteers to provide dinner to the RCIA participants on Tuesday evenings. You can sign up for one time or several. Participants (including the priests!) are grateful that we provide a meal. Our sessions fall right during dinner, so everyone is usually hungry. It's also a great way for us to spend some time getting to know one another. Thanks to all who continue to support this program! Contact Stephanie for more information or to sign-up to help.

Planning Meeting

Get out your lederhosen! It's time to get ready for Oktoberfest! Please bring your ideas and suggestions to help make this year's event even better than before. Anyone interested, please attend the planning meeting on Tuesday, September 4 at 6:30pm in the Parish Center Conference Room. If you can't make it, contact Dan Stahl at 740.335.7901 or Tina Garland in the Parish Office at office@stcolmanwch.org or 740.335.5000. Oktoberfest will be held on October 20th.

Scandal Follow-up

I am writing a follow-up to my last letter. If news this week has done anything, I'd say it has intensified the apparent need for prayer and fasting. Again for anyone looking for a more comprehensive asceticism program – check out www.exodus90.com or www.nineveh90.com, and then tailor it to your own level of call to asceticism. Even better, invite some like-minded individuals to join you. Consider writing a letter to the Pope since this is something that must be addressed high up in the hierarchy.

The following is an excerpt from St. Joseph Cathedral's bulletin last week: Write to Pope Francis a concise, polite letter stating your disgust with clergy sexual misconduct and the resulting need for real reforms and, in doing, investigate one of the root causes as those that came to light with the Pennsylvania and McCarrick situations and in situations in Honduras and Chile, and called to our attention by Bishop Morlino (Diocese of Madison) and Bishop Baker (Diocese of Birmingham) – actively homosexual clergy and clerical sexual infidelity, which are a crisis in holiness and a violation of the clerical state. There are issues related to clericalism, and needed changes in the way that allegations of sexual misconduct or abuse of power involving bishops and cardinals are to be handled. Accountability of perpetrators and real reforms are much needed – we need definitive action, Folks! Mail your letter to Pope Francis, Apostolic Palace, 00120 Vatican City.

Christ “handed himself over for his Bride,” (Eph 5:25) if we love Christ, we too must be willing to do whatever is necessary for the cleansing of His Bride, the Church.

India Relief

I also want to make mention about the terrible flooding that happened in India last week. Hard hit was the home region of our FIH sisters. The sisters said that families of twenty-five of their fellow sisters lost everything in the floods. Four hundred deaths, 1.8 million people displaced. If you would like to help, we will be sending any financial support collected to help these families of the sisters as well as others in the area. If you do, just write on an envelope “India Relief” and put it in the offertory. If you were to write a check, just make it out to the parish, and write “India Relief” in the memo. Thanks for your support and prayers for them.

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

Women of St. Colman

Meetings will resume on September 10th with a luncheon at noon in the Parish Hall. Come help us plan our activities for the coming year. Unable to attend? Contact Tina in the Parish Office or Helen Grim (secretary) if you are interested in helping with the All Souls reception, Religious Articles Sales, funeral meals and/or Rummage Sale. Many hands make light work, and we would love to get more ladies involved in these events.

Memorial Tree for a Loved One Planted in the Cemetery

The St. Colman Cemetery Board is accepting memorial contributions in memory of a loved one as they begin to replace trees along the front of the cemetery. Each memorial is $200. This includes the cost of the tree as well as the plaque that will be placed at the base of your tree. The Board will select the trees, plant and care for them.

Complete a "Tree Memorial Form" from the back of church along with your $200 check made payable to St. Colman Catholic Church. Please do not include this on your weekly offertory check as they are two separate bank accounts. Return your form and payment in a separate envelope marked "Tree Memorial" and drop it in the collection basket.

The trees will be planted and plaques installed this fall. Please contact Tina in the Parish Office or one of the Cemetery Board members if you have questions. Board members include: Phil Evans, president, Jim Garland, vice-president, Jill Adams, John Boylan, Ron Burkhard, Vicki Ream and Ann Winkle.

Preferred deadline is October 1.

Scarecrow Festival Fundraiser Sign Ups

Let's keep the profits coming with the Scarecrow booth next month: Sept. 14-16. Sign up sheets are in the back of church for you to volunteer your time in 2-hour increments to work our food booth at the festival selling chicken and noodles and drinks. You'll see specific duties for which you are to claim. Feel free to work more than one shift!

Mums will be delivered this coming week! If you ordered mums for the youth fundraiser, you will be need to pick them up next weekend after Mass or... watch the St. Colman Facebook page. When they are delivered, Tina will post when you can pick them up prior to next weekend. Payment is due when due at that time. Checks need to be made payment to St. Colman Catholic Church and paid separately from your offertory please.

Altar Flower Sponsorship Do you like seeing flowers at the altar during Mass? Then please consider sponsoring them for a weekend. They don't have to be placed in memory or honor of someone or an anniversary. You can simply sponsor them for the weekend. Contact Tina in the Parish Office to schedule them. One sponsorship per weekend, scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost is $40.00 and payment is due at the time of scheduling.

Living the Liturgical Year

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

September 3: St. Gregory the Great, Pope, father of Gregorian chant, Doctor of the Church, patron of singers, educators, masons and musicians.

This holy Pope governed the Church in the late 6th and early 7th centuries. He was instrumental in converting the barbarian Lombards of Europe who were taking control of the failing Roman Empire. His commentaries on Scripture, his reformation of the liturgy and his tireless watch over Christ's flock justly earned him the title of Gregory the Great. Read more about this illustrious saint at <http://catholicsaints.info/the-golden-legend-the-life-of-saint-gregory/>. For a soothing and spiritually refreshing treat, listen to some Gregorian chant. Here is a link for an audio download of the Holy Rosary in chant <https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B5DZHRvmF6ieb1VJc2tzVWRGYjg/view>.

RECIPE: "Sweet" Gregorian Chant (adapted from catholiccuisine.com)

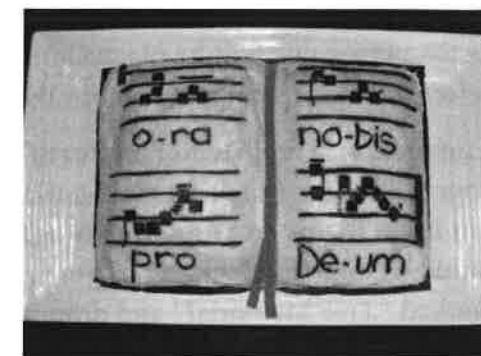

Ingredients:

1 box chocolate cake mix
2 containers vanilla frosting
1 strawberry or raspberry fruit roll up black paste food coloring or 1 tube black ready-to-use icing

Directions:

Bake cake according to package directions in a 9x13 pan. Cool completely. cut cake in half the short way and turn each half so outside edges are together to form the middle of the book. Dye 1/2 can frosting with black coloring, if you did not get the ready to use frosting, and put in a piping bag or a quart freezer ziploc with a small hole cut in the corner. Decorate as per picture (or make your own chant design) and place the roll up down the center, trim as needed!

Enjoy with tea and some Gregorian chant in the background.

Prayer to St. Gregory the Great

St. Gregory, you are known for your zeal for the Catholic faith, love of liturgy, and compassion and mercy toward those in need. Please help and guide us so that we may share in these virtues and thereby bring Jesus into the hearts of our families and all we encounter. We especially ask for blessings on our parish family, our priests and our deacons.

I also ask that you graciously intercede for me before God so that I might be granted the special assistance and graces that I seek (state personal intentions here.). Help me to live as a faithful child of God and to attain the eternal happiness of heaven.

+St. Gregory the Great pray for us.+ Amen
