Thank you from St. Vincent de Paul! The members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society thank you for your prayers and monetary support this past year. Your generous contributions have allowed us to give to those in need by providing assistance with prescriptions, gas, utilities and food. In addition, at this holiday season, we and the Knights of Columbus have been able to give 25 selected families a turkey meal.

Next weekend is the fifth weekend of the month and our final St. Vincent de Paul collection of the year. St. Vincent de Paul members will be collecting donations at the church doors at the end of Mass. Please give as generously you are able so that we may continue to help those in need.

Christmas Collections

There will be two collections during the Christmas Masses on December 24 and 25. The green envelope that says "My Christmas Offering" is for the parish. The envelope labeled "Diocesan Charities Collection" is the collection that will be sent to the Diocese. Our Ushers will pass the baskets only once. Please place both envelopes in the baskets at the same time.

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Chicken & Noodle Sale

What's better on a cold, wintry day than a bowl of homemade chicken and noodles? What's better is that you can have this homemade dish AND help your parish! We are having a Chicken & Noodle fundraiser to benefit the March for Life trips, our youth program and special events here at St. Colman.

Here are the details:

1. Chicken & Noodles will be made fresh on Thursday, Jan. 31
2. Pick up your order after Mass on February 2nd or 3rd
3. Pints are $2.50. Quarts are $5.00
4. All orders will be refrigerated unless you specifically order them hot on your order form.
5. Order forms AND payment are due in the Parish Office by January 28, 2019. Checks made payable to St. Colman.

Order forms are available in the back of church, in the Parish Hall literature rack and on the website. Be sure to complete the entire order form. You keep the top portion. Return the bottom portion with your payment in a separate envelope deposited in the collection basket or sent to the Parish Office.

Thank you for supporting our fundraising efforts to benefit our youth and special events! God bless you!

Visits to Our Homebound

Fr. Dooley is making visits to our homebound this Christmas season. Please contact Tina in the Parish Office if a member of your family is homebound and would like Father to visit.

Consider Making a Year-End Gift to St. Colman

As the end of the year approaches, we begin to reflect upon the many blessings bestowed upon us. The end of the year also provides a great opportunity to thank God for these blessings by gifting to St. Colman. The benefits of income tax deductions, capital gains savings and other financial benefits are significant advantages that provide an incentive to make a gift at the year-end.

There are many different ways of contributing a gift. However, two of the easiest and most direct methods to gift are donations of cash and appreciated stock or other investments. Stock donations must run through the Diocese. Go to <https://www.stcolmanwch.org/> online-giving to begin the process of your stock donation.

You can also make other financially advantageous gifts such as life insurance, charitable remainder trusts, gift annuities, will/trust bequests and IRA/retirement accounts.

All donations to be included on the 2018 offertory statements need to be into the Parish Office by 1:00pm on Friday, December 28, 2018. Cash donations can also be put in the collection on December 29 and 30 as they will be posted for Sunday, December 30.

Christmas Memorials & Donations

Christmas is a time for honoring and remembering those most dear to us. The following parishioners have sponsored a Christmas flower here in the church for their loved ones. These names have been placed on the Altar for the Christmas season so that Father will pray over them at the most sacred moments of our Mass.

Living the Liturgical Year

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

December 26: St. Stephen, first Christian martyr, patron of deacons, horses, masons and casket makers

St. Stephen was one of the seven deacons chosen by the Apostles to help them in their work. He was “filled with faith and with the Holy Spirit” (Acts 6:5). The Acts of the Apostles records that his opponents in debate could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. He was truly a man of God after the heart of Christ. His enemies brought him before the Sanhedrin accusing him of blasphemy, set up false witnesses against him and, in the end, put him to a cruel death by stoning while he prayed for his executioners, imitating the Master he so lovingly served.

Since St. Stephen’s feast is celebrated the day after Christmas, this stew seemed a good idea to use up much of the Christmas leftovers.

St. Stephen’s Day Stew

1 to 2 lb leftover turkey and 1 lb leftover ham (if you only have one of these it is ok)
 4 tbsp butter
 1 large onion, chopped
 8 oz mushrooms, sliced
 4 cups turkey stock (or use stock and gravy or even just gravy if that is what you have)
 3/4 cup sour cream
 1 to 2 tbsp chopped fresh parsley (or 2 tsp dried)
 1 tsp oregano
 6 to 8 potatoes cubed and cooked salt and pepper to taste

Cut up turkey and ham into bite size pieces. Melt butter in large pot, add onions and mushrooms and cook over medium-high heat until onions soften and mushrooms start to sweat. Toss in the meat and cook a couple more minutes, stirring to prevent browning. Add in a cup of stock (or water if using only gravy) to deglaze the pot then add remaining stock and/or gravy and bring to a boil; lower heat and simmer 5 minutes. Ladle a cup of hot liquid into a bowl and whisk with sour cream until smooth then add back to the pot and stir. Lastly add cooked potatoes and seasonings and simmer 5 more minutes. Serve hot with crusty bread or leftover Christmas rolls!

Prayer to St. Stephen the Martyr for faith in times of persecution

We thank you Lord for the example of the first martyr who looked up to heaven and prayed for his persecutors to Your Son Jesus Christ, who stands at Your right hand where He lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, in glory everlasting, Amen. ## From the Desk of Fr. Dooley...

Happy Fourth Sunday of Advent and/or a Merry Christmas to you! We rejoice that the Lord has arrived and that God has not forgotten us. This week has plenty of meanings for many peoples. It is one where memories of childhood come in the forefront and visiting family takes priority. Many practicing and non-practicing Catholics step inside the church for Christmas. Regardless of where you are in your faith journey, welcome to St. Colman Parish!

While it is good to recall our past, we have to be aware that Christmas is much more than memories. As one theologian wrote: “Advent and Christmas is not about a sentimental waiting for the Baby Jesus.” This arrival of the Lord goes far beyond our emotions and memories. We are witnesses of the Lord entering the world, and we have to keep making room for Him in our lives. Jesus has already arrived, and we need Christmas to serve for us as a bridge to the mystery of God. May this Christmas Season remind us to make that room.

I leave you with a Christmas Prayer from Fr. Henri Nouwen (d. 1996):

*Lord Jesus,
 Master of both the light and the darkness,
 send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas.
 We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day.
 We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us.
 We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kingdom.
 We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of your presence.
 We are your people, walking in darkness, yet seeking the light.
 To you we say, “Come Lord Jesus!”*

Merry Christmas!
 Fr. Dooley

On behalf of Fr. Hahn, Fr. Dooley, Fr. Thomas, Deacon Hauser, and the Staff of St. Colman, we pray and hope that you have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! We are grateful to be a part of St. Colman Parish.
