Rachel's Corner Hope and Healing After Abortion

"All grace flows from mercy,Let no one doubt concerning the goodness of God; even if a person's sins were as dark as night, God's mercy is stronger than our misery. One thing alone is necessary; that the sinner set ajar the door of his heart, be it ever so little, to let in a ray of God's merciful grace, and then God will do the rest."

- No. 1507 / Diary of Saint Faustina

Are you ready to open the door of your heart just enough to invite God in so He can show you how His mercy is stronger than your post-abortive pain? Join us on a Rachel's Vineyard™ Retreat and come alive again as you are warmed by the rays of His healing mercy.

Call for a compassionate, confidential conversation.

Monthly Immigrant & Refugee Network Gathering

This is an open meeting. Every Second Thursday of each month from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at St. James Cathedral. We meet in the Cathedral Place building across from O'Dea High School.

- All those working on immigrant and refugee matters in their respective parishes, schools, and lives are invited to attend.
- Network meetings typically include an update on current events from St. James Immigrant Assistance and/or the Washington State Catholic Conference.
- Attendees have an opportunity to report on their respective immigrant and refugee support activities and network with other workers in the vineyard.
- Please join us and let's build the Kingdom of God together - for all God's children.

Kinship For Our Time

A Lunch Conversation with Gary Smith, SJ

Saturday, November 3rd

12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

St. Joseph Parish Center

(732 - 18th Ave E., Seattle, WA 98112)

Join other men for this lunch conversation with Fr. Gary Smith, SJ, a Jesuit who has spent his life in service to people on the margins of society in North America and to refugees in Africa. Explore in more depth how an Ignatian lens can help you to discern with whom you are called to be in closer relationship and how you might take further steps from separation to solidarity with those most in need.

This follows a Morning of Reflection with Gary Smith, SJ for men and women from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. that day.
