June 11 The Hate You Give

Starr Carter is constantly switching between two worlds: the poor, mostly black, neighborhood where she lives and the rich, mostly white, prep school she attends. The uneasy balance between these worlds is shattered when Starr witnesses the fatal shooting of her childhood best friend Khalil at the hands of a police officer. Now, facing pressures from all sides of the community, Starr must find her voice and stand up for what's right. Rated PG-13

July 9 Won't You Be My Neighbor

He gave us the most precious gift of all: the courage to be kind. For over 30 years, children grew up watching Mr. Roger's Neighborhood. He offered a kind and stable presence, tackling life's weightiest issues in a simple and direct way. One of the year's most acclaimed films paints an intimate portrait of a man loved by millions whose example of empathy, love and patience is as necessary as ever. Rated PG-13

August 6 The Boy Who Harvested the Wind

William Kamkwamba was born in Malawi, a country where magic ruled and modern science was mystery. It was also a land withered by drought and hunger. But William had read about windmills, and he dreamed of building one that would bring to his small village a set of luxuries that only 2 percent of Malawians could enjoy: electricity and running water. This film is a remarkable true story that will inspire anyone who doubts the power of one individual's ability to change his community and better the lives of those around him. Rated PG
