Traveling This Summer?

Remember to put Sunday Mass first in your vacation plans! It's great to relax for a while from cares and responsibilities, but everyone still engages in the most necessary activities while on vacation, such as eating and drinking. The Mass is one of those necessary activities. It is the nourishment of our Christian life; without it, we will spiritually die, which is why we have such a grave obligation to attend: "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass" (Code of Canon Law #1247).

Go to masstimes.org to find Mass at your destination.

Pray for Our Future Priests

The 31 Club promotes prayer on behalf of the Seminarians and Deacons in formation in the Fort Worth Diocese. Each day of the month is assigned to a specific Seminarian or Deaconate candidate, and the members of the 31 Club are then asked to pray for that person on the day corresponding to their birthday, and asked to set aside one hour of prayer and adoration on their behalf. We are encouraged to pray daily for all Seminarians and candidates to the Deaconate, all Religious, as well as those undergoing the discernment process. The Vocations Ministry will continue to help promote a vocations culture through prayer, education, youth and young adult development, mentoring, encouragement, and support throughout the discernment process. For more information, please contact Jeremy Stephens at (214) 770-6882 or Jeremystephens@catholicexchange.com

The Divine Face Organization has a Project on MISSIO!

MISSIO was launched in 2013 by Pope Francis to enable funding of Mission projects near and dear to people's hearts in some of the poorest areas of the world. 100% of the money raised with MISSIO platform funds this project directly.

Through a partnership with St Philip the Apostle Catholic Church, the Divine Face began construction on the St Philip Vocational Education Center in Nigeria. The vocational school building will help break the chain of poverty in this Nigerian community through educational training in welding, auto mechanics, plumbing, sewing, and furniture making. Please check out our MISSIO project (<https://www.missio.org/project/2582>) to finish and equip this vocational center. Share the message with your friends through social media. With your help and the power of the internet, we can serve the needs of our Nigerian community.

ST. PHILIP ALTAR FLOWERS

Are You Skilled in Arranging Flowers?

The Flower Ministry at St. Philip's is in need of a new team coordinator and other volunteers.

Here's what we do:

- Select weekly flowers
- Arrange and place flowers on the altar, ambo, and chapel
- When flowers have expired, wash and dry vases and stones
- When necessary, clear any flowers around statues and wash vases
- Communicate with staff re: availability of worship space and sacristy
- Coordinate volunteers and scheduling for arranging (1 or 2 teams)

During Ordinary Time, we maintain plants around the altar and ambo. Flowers and decorating are primarily for Advent, Christmas, Easter, and some special Feast Days or Holy Days. For Seasonal decorating and arranging: 2 months before a season, coordinator meets with Fr. McDaniel to coordinate and share suggestions for flower selection and delivery dates.

For more information, please contact Sandi Rockne at sandir@stphilipcc.org or 972-353-5756.

Pull Out Dignitatis humanae for Independence Day:

Quotes from the Second Vatican Council's Declaration on Religious Freedom

God has revealed truths about Himself and so we must seek these truths.

“First, the council professes its belief that God Himself has made known to mankind the way in which men are to serve Him, and thus be saved in Christ and come to blessedness. We believe that this one true religion subsists in the Catholic and Apostolic Church, to which the Lord Jesus committed the duty of spreading it abroad among all men. Thus He spoke to the Apostles: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have enjoined upon you” (Matt. 28: 19-20). On their part, all men are bound to seek the truth, especially in what concerns God and His Church, and to embrace the truth they come to know, and to hold fast to it” (DH, 1).

The unique nature of human beings gives them the ability and therefore the responsibility to find the truth about God.

“It is in accordance with their dignity as persons—that is, beings endowed with reason and free will and therefore privileged to bear personal responsibility—that all men should be at once impelled by nature and also bound by a moral obligation to seek the truth, especially religious truth. They are also bound to adhere to the truth, once it is known, and to order their whole lives in accord with the demands of truth. However, men cannot discharge these obligations in a manner in keeping with their own nature unless they enjoy immunity from external coercion as well as psychological freedom. Therefore the right to religious freedom has its foundation not in the subjective disposition of the person, but in his very nature” (DH, 2).

The free exercise of conscience is essential to religious freedom.

“On his part, man perceives and acknowledges the imperatives of the divine law through the mediation of conscience. In all his activity a man is bound to follow his conscience in order that he may come to God, the end and purpose of life. It follows that he is not to be forced to act in a manner contrary to his conscience. Nor, on the other hand, is he to be restrained from acting in accordance with his conscience, especially in matters religious. The reason is that the exercise of religion, of its very nature, consists before all else in those internal, voluntary and free acts whereby man sets the course of his life directly toward God. No merely human power can either command or prohibit acts of this kind” (DH, 3)

Religious freedom is for public as well as private acts.

“The social nature of man, however, itself requires that he should give external expression to his internal acts of religion: that he should share with others in matters religious; that he should profess his religion in community. Injury therefore is done to the human person and to the very order established by God for human life, if the free exercise of religion is denied in society, provided just public order is observed” (DH, 3).

This retreat will fill up fast so reserve a spot now! Registration is now open! Fill out a registration form and hand it in at Church today or drop it off at the parish office. Forms are available in the Narthex.

Where: Briarwood Retreat Center, Argyle, TX

For more information, contact: Jim Salanky, Director (214)629-7214; John Zongol, Co-Director (214)886-1869.

Why should I attend an ACTS retreat? An ACTS weekend is a chance to relax and focus on your faith journey. The retreat is designed to support and strengthen the parish community through fun, fellowship, and the sharing of faith. Talks and activities serve as welcoming invitations to explore your faith in a very meaningful way, and to establish closer and richer ties with members of your community, by utilizing the themes of:

Adoration: The call by, acceptance of, and response to God

Community: Love and caring for each other as members of the Body of Christ

Theology: Study of our faith through scripture and the Catholic faith

Service: To God, each other, and our parish family

Participants experience God's love and joy throughout the weekend, and return to their faith community with a greater love for each other and an increased desire to become more involved in the life of their parish.
