RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS: September is NOT too far away and that means Religious Education Classes are not too far behind either!! We are looking to find interested men and women to teach our faith to the youth of St. Joseph's this coming year. Please start thinking about if YOU are being called to teach afternoon or evening classes. Could you be on a substitute teacher list, where you could be called on short notice to fill in for a teacher who is unable to teach on a Wednesday? We need you! Classes begin on Wednesday, September 14th. Please contact Darlene (K-6) or Jessie (7-12) at 873-5006 or parish office at 873-5397.

THANK YOU to Rita Baranick, Hunter and Rhonda Obrigewitch for being chaperones for the Steubenville Youth Conference. The time, support and prayers you willingly gave to the St. Joseph Youth Group are much appreciated.

“Mary, thank you for your example of a life lived close to Jesus! Help me to remain near to him too.”
