FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus first asks his disciples what others are saying about him and then he asks them for their own opinion. The various answers to this question tells us there must have been some debate about the meaning of Jesus' ministry.

Some people believed Jesus was John the Baptist. Although King Herod killed John, many people who saw the signs and miracles Jesus performed wondered if he might really be John the Baptist resurrected. Other people thought Jesus was Jeremiah or Elijah.

Jeremiah was a great Old Testament prophet who took the Arc of the Covenant (the box in the Temple containing the Ten Commandments) and hid it in a cave on Mount Nebo just before the Babylonians conquered Jerusalem in 586 B.C. (2 Maccabees 2:4-8). Since no one ever found the Ark of the Covenant, some Jews believe Jeremiah would return to the earth just before the Messiah's arrival to reveal where he hit it. So Jeremiah's reappearance would indicate that the time of the Messiah is near.

Elijah was the greatest of the Old Testament prophets. According to the Second Book of Kings, Elijah never died but went to heaven in a fiery chariot. Some Jews believe Elijah would one day return to the world to prepare the way for the Messiah. When Elijah appears, the Messiah will not be far behind.

The people showed great respect for Jesus when they compared him to these three great men but they did not recognize him as the long awaited Messiah. Only Simon Peter understood that Jesus was even more important than the greatest of the old testament figures and his believe in Jesus as the Messiah earned him a place of honor in the early Church. Simon Peter's faith is the sturdy rock on which the Church is built.

Close your eyes and pretend Jesus is asking you who you think he is. What is your answer?

I am writing this on Wednesday, 23 August, while I am still in Hawaii. Tomorrow night is the annual fundraiser for the parish that I am currently residing in the Waikiki section of Honolulu. St.

Augustine by-the-Sea Catholic Church is in the process of building a museum to honor Saint Damien and Saint Marianne, both of whom served at the leper settlement at Kalaupapa, an isolated peninsula on the Hawaiian island of Moloka'i, where my mother hails from. Saints Damien and Marianne are dear to the Catholic Community here in Hawaii, and St. Augustine parish wishes to honor them by establishing a museum as tribute to their ministry with those afflicted with Hansen's Disease.

As you read this, the Bay Area will have already experienced one or two rallies sponsored by right-wing groups. Scheduled for San Francisco and Berkeley, these protests are meant to provoke and antagonize, as well as to instigate and ferment other protests. The message of the right-wing groups only serve to stir a strong response by those who fight the injustices and inflammatory rhetoric and hateful words spewed by the current ministrations. Most recent one is a threat to shut down the U.S. government the building of the border wall with Mexico. Scary.

We can either ignore these protests or resist their derogatory stands or perhaps to both. Many clergy and Berkeley and Oakland are planning to take part in vigils to counter the right-wing rallies. If my time and schedule allows, I plan to join them.

I have heard that a number of our St. Benedict parishioners have experienced deep and profound losses. My condolences to Col. Leo Galloway, Lil Brown-Parker and John Wilson upon the passing of family members. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of them.

God bless,
Fr. Jayson

Please pray for the sick, especially:
