“BEHOLD, I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW”

These words from God end our first reading today from the book Revelation attributed to St. John the Apostle. The book presents his visions of the glory of heaven and Jesus the risen Lord who is The Lamb of God who died and rose so that we might have a new life with God.

God sent Jesus so that things could be different in our relationship with God. He rose from the dead and promised new life to those who believe in him. God can make all things new. We are called to believe that God can do his work in our hearts right now if we turn to God in prayer. God can work wonders in the hearts of others through us when we go forth as disciples of Jesus and do the things that he would do. We can speak words of truth, we can visit the sick and bring healing comfort. We are made anew into the image of Jesus each day if our words and actions reflect those of Jesus.

This Easter season of the church is about half over and the emphasis is moving now in the scriptures from believing in the risen Lord to realizing we have to go forth and show others in word and deed that we truly believe that Jesus is risen and that has made all the difference. Be a disciple of Jesus this week and go forth and bring peace, mercy and love to others and they will know that God can make things new! ... Fr. Joe

THE YEAR OF MERCY...

"Pardoning offenses becomes the clearest expression of merciful love, and for us Christians it is an imperative from which we cannot excuse ourselves. At times how hard it seems to forgive! And yet pardon is the instrument placed into our fragile hands to attain serenity of heart. To let go of anger, wrath, violence, and revenge are necessary conditions to living joyfully. Let us therefore heed the Apostle's exhortation: 'Do not let the sun go down on your anger' (Eph 4:26). Above all, let us listen to the words of Jesus who made mercy as an ideal of life and a criterion for the credibility of our faith: 'Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy' (Mt 5:7); the beatitude to which we should particularly aspire in this Holy Year."
— Pope Francis

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

"The first Christians intrigued people not because they did anything extraordinary, but simply by the way they lived, loved and worked. Who does your life intrigue?" quote by Matthew Kelly. One sign that should tell others that we are Christians is the way we treat others with mercy. Be merciful for God is merciful.

THE JOY OF LOVE...March 19, 2016 Exhortation

Here is an excerpt from Pope Francis letter Chapter 4 # 91 and 92--- The fourth chapter of his letter is a reflection on the verses from St Paul's First letter to the Corinthians chapter 13...here is what Pope Francis said in reference to the verse: "Love is Patient" 13:4-7 "The word patient refers to the quality of one who does not act on impulse and avoids giving offence. We find this quality in God who call us to imitate him also within the life of the family. Being patient does not mean letting ourselves be constantly mistreated...We encounter problems whenever we think that relationships ought to be perfect or when we put ourselves at the center and expect things to turn out our way. Then everything makes us impatient, everything makes us react aggressively. Patience takes root when I recognize the other people also have a right to live in the world just as they are. It does not matter if they hold me back, if they unsettle my plans, or annoy me by the way they act or think, or if they are everything I want them to be. Love always has an aspect of deep compassion that leads to accepting the other person as part of this world even when he or she acts differently than I would like."

CATHOLIC CHARITIES IS ACTION...

Jenny* is 19. At seven she was removed from her parents' home where she suffered abuse and neglect. She bounced from foster home to foster home until a family member agreed to take custody. This lasted until Jenny was 15 when she became homeless. She stayed on the couches of friends and, incredibly, was able to graduate high school last year. She needed help with her next steps, so she turned to her local Catholic Charities mentoring program. Now Jenny has temporary housing and is set to enter college in the fall. WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC...

We are Catholic because we believe: Christ's Transfiguration aims at strengthening the apostles' faith in anticipation of his Passion: the ascent on to the "high mountain" prepares for the ascent to Calvary. Christ, Head of the Church, manifests what his Body contains and radiates in the sacraments: "the hope of glory." - The Catechism of the Catholic Church # 568

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas traveled to many towns and found many disciples willing to help them preach. They warned their disciples of the trials they would face. Paul and Barnabas then returned to Antioch, where their journey had begun, and told the congregation there of the progress they had made.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

John had a vision of a new earth, and a new Jerusalem coming down from heaven. Then a voice described Jerusalem as a place where God would live among his people and comfort them. The former world had vanished, and pain, death and suffering had left the world as well.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

After Judas left the last supper, Jesus warned the other disciples that he would not be with them much longer. Jesus gave them a new commandment to love one another as he had loved them. He stated that their love for each other would distinguish them as his disciples.

All-powerful and ever-living God the lasting health of all who believe in you, hear us as we ask your loving help for the sick; restore their health that they may again offer joyful thanks in your church.

Every now and then we try to update our prayer list of names of the sick and special intentions. We have alphabetized the names in the hopes of making them easier to read. There are some names that we in the parish office cannot associate with a person who made the request to pray for them. Please look over the list and if you requested prayers for a person please either call the office or e mail Fr. Joe to let us know if you wish to continue to be on this prayer list.
