JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY RETREAT IN ROME...

Tomorrow I will be going to Rome to be a part of a retreat for priests from all over the world. The retreat's theme centers on the special year of Mercy called for by Pope Francis. My understanding is that various basilicas in Rome will be where the retreat will be given in various languages. On Wednesday Pope Francis is scheduled to give a retreat talk. According to the schedule he will speak at three different times. I am guessing he will go to the various basilicas but I do not have the details as of yet. These will be given to the participants when we arrive in Rome. This will be a quick trip just Monday to Friday. Rome is a beautiful city to visit and I hope to be able to visit some of the sites. I certainly intend to remember all of you in my prayers...Fr. Joe

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY...

"One the day of the final harvest, the judge will be Jesus. ... In the end we will all be judged by the same measure with which we have judged: the mercy we have shown to others will also be shown to us. Let us ask Our Lady, our Mother, to help us grow in patience, in hope and in mercy with all brothers and sisters." — Pope Francis

LOVE IS NOT RUDE...words of Pope Francis from his exhortation "The Joy of Love"

To love is also to be gentle and thoughtful, it indicates that love is not rude or impolite; it is not harsh. Its actions, words and gestures are pleasing and not abrasive or rigid. Love abhors making others suffer. An essential requirement of love, "every human being is bound to live agreeably with those around him". Every day, "entering into the life of another, even when that person already has a part to play in our life, demands the sensitivity and restraint which can renew trust and respect. Indeed, the deeper love is, the more it calls for respect for the other's freedom and the ability to wait until the other opens the door to his or her heart". #99

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

Place yourself in God's presence in the first moments of each day. You will discover the whole day improves with that small offering. Talk to him. He waits for you in the stillness, in the silence of your heart. Speak - -from Talking to God by Julie Dortch Cragon

WHY WE ARE CATHOLIC...

We are Catholic because we believe: Following in the steps of the prophets and John the Baptist, Jesus announced the judgment of the Last Day in his preaching. Then will the conduct of each one and the secrets of hearts be brought to light. Then will the culpable unbelief that counted the offer of God's grace as nothing be condemned. Our attitude to our neighbor will disclose acceptance or refusal of grace and divine love. On the Last Day Jesus will say: "Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." The Catechism of the Catholic Church -paragraph 678.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE....Share your home with a Foreign Exchange Student...

CIEE's USA High School students stay with their host families for either 1 to 2 semesters while attending a US high school. The cultural exchange between your family and the student will help you both to gain a deeper understanding of human values that unite all nations across the world. By having these students live with American families, we break down the barriers that divide people, not only across international borders, but also within our own community. CIEE students have their own funds for school lunches, clothing and personal spending needs as well as medical insurance. Please call Holly at 973-271-6166 and make a difference in our world. Visit www.ciee.org/hs/host/ to learn more about hosting.
