3rd Sunday of Advent

Let us be prophets for our time.

As we always do in the first part of Advent, today we encounter John the Baptist in the town of Bethany, near the Jordan. In John's Gospel, the Baptist is being confronted by religious officials: priests and Levites who have come from Jerusalem to question him. He readily admits that he is not the Christ, nor is he Elijah or the Prophet. He insists, quoting Isaiah, that he is only the voice of one crying out in the desert, "make straight the way of the Lord."

The religious leaders questioned him further, asking: Why then do you baptize? John answers, I baptize with water; but there is one ... coming after me whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie.

Like all prophets, then, this was John's calling – to prepare the world for Jesus, to announce his coming. Even in his mother Elizabeth's womb, he had leapt for joy at the visit of Mary and his Lord. He was to confront the sins and sinners of his age, to encourage their repentance and to give them a ritual bath in the Jordan. John the Baptist brought to completion the work of the Old Testament prophets, and bore witness to the truth that Jesus is the Son of God (CCC 719).

How can we be more like John the Baptist? We can begin by better appreciating our own baptism, our own anointing, and our own call to holiness and mission. The Spirit of the Lord is upon us, and the Lord has anointed us to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord.

Each of us can be the voice of one crying out in the desert. Strengthened by the word, graced by the sacraments, surrounded by our parish and fortified by a worldwide community of believers, we can truly live as followers of Jesus.

Let us pledge to stand together for the sake of the Gospel, and to raise our voices in defense of the truth. Speak up. That's what prophets do best.

Faith Direct

Faith Direct enables parishioners to make your Church contributions through either direct debit from your checking/savings account or through your credit/debit card. No more writing checks or searching for envelopes on the way out the door. Now you can apply the convenience of direct debit to your parish offerings in much the same way as you may now use it to make your mortgage, car or tuition payments. Visit www.faithdirect.net to enroll securely online. Our parish code is NJ658.

Men's Weekend Retreat "Transformation"

January 19 - 21, 2018

Led by Rev. George Collins, S.J.

Sponsored by: The Dominic Galdieri Group

Please join men from our parish family for a retreat at Loyola Jesuit Center in Morristown. It will offer you a time to relax, reflect and get a fresh start for the New Year. This year's theme is "Transformation" - letting go of past hurts and wounds so that we can be transformed into the person God has called us to be, living a full and joyful life! The weekend includes preached reflections for prayer, optional private consultations, celebration of Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Healing, and so much more. It is truly a wonderful experience and the cost is a free will offering. To register call 973-539-0740 or visit www.loyola.org.

Saint of the Week

December 17 | St. Olympias

Olympias is a great saint of the Eastern Church. She lived in the fourth century and was a friend of St. John Chrysostom. Because she was orphaned at a young age, Olympias was brought up by her uncle. In 384 she married the prefect of Constantinople. Two years later her husband died and she devoted herself to works of charity and Christian service.

Heiress to a great fortune, St. Olympias lived on an estate and enjoyed the favor of the emperor. When she refused to re-marry one of his kinsmen, her estate was impounded by the emperor, but later on he had a change of heart. Olympias went on with her devotion to the poor and sick. She founded a convent next to the cathedral, an orphanage, a hospital, and a hospice for strangers.

She was befriended by several holy people of her day: Sts. Basil and Gregory and Peter Sebaste, in addition to St. John Chrysostom. She supported John even to the point of persecution when he was exiled by the emperor.

When Olympias died in exile in 408, she was only in her mid-forties. Her body was taken back to Constantinople and buried in the convent she founded. She is remembered for her extreme generosity to the poor and for the value she placed on friendship.

St. Olympias, teach us to value our friends and stay loyal to them even when it entails suffering for ourselves.
