Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“O Lord, my God, let the life breath return to the body of this child.’ The Lord heard the prayer of Elijah, the life breath returned to the child’s body and he revived....The woman replied, ‘now indeed I know that you are a man of God. The word of the Lord comes truly from your mouth.’... ‘A great prophet has arisen in our midst’ and ‘God has visited his people.’”

We use many expressions related to our breathing. We ‘run out of breath’, we experience ‘heavy breathing’ and sometimes when surprised ‘lose our breath. CPR is employed to restore a normal breathing process.

We read that Jesus breathed on the apostles, when He gave power to forgive sins. We recall a few weeks ago, the Spirit came upon the church at Pentecost. The first story of creation finds God offering His breath, the ‘ruah Yahweh’ when God gave Adam his living soul.

Today the Word of God reveals two widows, now suffering the loss of their sons. The compassion of the prophet and the concern of Jesus, restores life to the lifeless bodies. Both are returned to their mothers. Did you ever wonder how they related their experience to their mothers, like the popular book of our time.

Jesus continues to restore life through the healing in the sacraments of reconciliation and the anointing of the sick. Both are viable signs of His mercy, offering health, strength and resistance to evil.

WELCOME!!!! Are you new to our parish? Have you been attending, but haven’t gotten around to registering? There are blank registration forms located in a large white envelope on the table near the Church Hall exit. Please fill one out, mail it back to the Rectory (address on front of bulletin) & give it to Fr. Charles or an usher on Sunday or mail to the Rectory office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION – Grades 1-8

REGISTRATION for the 2016/2017 has begun - registration forms will be available on the table in the hall. Deadline for all registrations is June 30th – no exceptions. Payment can be made at the time you send it in or if necessary later on, but we do need the registration forms returned in order to plan the upcoming Religious Ed year. Your cooperation is appreciated!

PARENTS: Have you ever thought about being a Religious Ed Catechist? Maybe your children’s journey has inspired you to think about it? Please call Carol at 973-875-4521 and we can explore the possibilities!!!

REFLECTIONS ON THE YEAR OF MERCY

"Jesus' attitude is striking: we do not hear the words of scorn, we do not hear words of condemnation, but only words of love, of mercy, which are an invitation to conversation. "Neither do I condemn you; go, and do not sin again." Ah! Brothers and Sisters, God's face is the face of a merciful father who is always patient. Have you thought about God's patience, the patience He has with each one of us? That is His mercy. He always has patience, patience with us, He understands us, He waits for us, He does not tire of forgiving us if we are able to return to Him with a contrite heart. "Great is God's mercy," says the Psalm.

— Pope Francis, Angelus on March 17, 2013

Have you passed through a Holy Door yet? Passing through a Holy Door is part of the pilgrimage that all Catholics are encouraged to make, whether during a trip to Rome, or a trip to the cathedrals or specially designated churches in and around their own dioceses. These pilgrimages come with special graces, and they allow each of us to share in the many blessings of the Holy Year. Passing through the Holy Door symbolizes our leaving the world outside and entering into the realm of salvation. As Pope St. John Paul II said, the Holy Door "evokes the passage from sin to grace which every Christian is called to accomplish"

(There are several designated Holy Doors in the surrounding area – St. Patrick's Cathedral in NYC, Sacred Heart Basilica in Newark, The National Shrine of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in Middletown, NY)

Catholic Charities Straight & Narrow Gospel Choir very much needs a gently used flute. If anyone has one they would like to donate, please contact Joe Duffy at 973-345-6000 x6280 or at jduffy@patersondiocese.org.

Vocations Discernment for young men 15-25

"Quo Vadis – Where are you going?" Where is the Spirit acting in your life? Where is the Lord encouraging you to go? Quo Vadis Days is a time of recreation, fellowship, and prayer to help you explore the Lord's call in your life. Activities will include prayer, Mass, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, games, sports, talks, great food, and discussions. It is a time to share our faith and meet other young men seeking God's will. Quo Vadis Days will be held June 29- July 1 at the Sacred Heart Retreat Center in Newton, New Jersey. There is no cost. For more information and/or registration, contact the coordinators Fr. Jared Brogan and Fr. Edgar Rivera in the Vocations Office at (973) 777-8818, ext. #711. You can also email Frs. Brogan and Rivera at jbrogan@patersondiocese.org or fredgar@patersondiocese.org

TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:17-24

The child of the mistress of the house where Elijah sojourned became ill and died. The woman pleaded with Elijah who took the son and prayed over him. When the child revived Elijah returned him to his mother who recognized Elijah as "a man of God."

Second Reading: Galatians 1:11-19

Paul proclaims the gospel, not as human, but coming from the revelation of Jesus Christ. Paul continues to acknowledge his own sinfulness and call to grace.

Gospel: Luke 7:11-17

The gospel continues to recount the miracles and healing powers of Jesus. As Jesus neared the gates to the city of Nain, they came upon a deceased young man who was being carried out of the city. His mother, a widow, and a large crowd accompanying the body, met Jesus on the way. Compassionately, Jesus comforts the weeping mother and restores life to the dead man.

GO TO CELEBRATE

FATIMA on Monday, June 13, 2016, 7:30-8:30pm at Our Lady of Fatima Church, 184 Breakneck Road, Highland Lakes, NJ 07422.

In commemoration of the Blessed Virgin Mary's apparition to three children in Portugal on June 13, 1917, we shall have a procession with the Fatima statue, expose the Blessed Sacrament, pray the rosary in a variety of languages, and give Benediction. Organ music and traditional hymns will accompany this activity.

Our Lady appeared to the children and said to Lucia, the oldest, "...to pray the rosary every day and I want you to learn to read." "God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart." "My Immaculate Heart will never abandon you, but will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God."

Gospel Today

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Luke 7:11-17

Jesus understood the woman's sadness at the death of her only son. Full of compassion, He raised the young man back to life and comforted the mother. The people following the funeral knew they witnessed a miracle and news of Jesus spread quickly.
