“Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart.” On our best days this is a consoling truth! The Lord sees our good intentions, our efforts, our perseverance. On our worst days it is daunting... the Lord sees how fleeting and inconstant our faith, hope and love can be.

Christ is the Light of the World! He shines into darkness: the darkness of the world, or the darkness of our hearts. If we turn to Him, this light is a healing light, not a destroying fire. The Lord shines the light of His love into our hearts, and although it may convict us, it does so to usher in our healing and conversion. His invitation is a positive one, “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.”

Jesus first heals the physical sight of the man born blind. At the end of the story, He encounters him once again, and invites him to a spiritual vision. Jesus finishes describing His own mission: “Then Jesus said, ‘I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind.’”

This Lenten season is an opportunity to become more aware of our own blindness and need for healing. If we proudly declare “I see, I understand, I don’t need help,” then we turn our backs on the Lord’s grace. In contrast, if we can say, “Lord I am ever more aware of my own frailty,” then we are in a better position to be converted!

I have had abundant reason to know of my own frailty in recent days as I have fought a rather fierce flu. As I type this on Thursday, I am feeling better, although not great. Thank you for your prayers and well-wishes. Last Sunday was definitely the closest I’ve ever come to not being physically able to celebrate Mass, but we made it through!

Despite being sick, I was able to make it down to visit our very own seminarian, Jack Kinnunen, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Winona, MN this past Sunday - Tuesday. I brought 2 young men with me, and met Fr. Tim Ekaitis there with 5 young men from his parishes. We had a great visit with Jack, who is doing well, and the young men got a great experience of what seminary life is like. Please keep praying fervently for the Holy Spirit to draw forth many priestly vocations from our parishes and diocese! It is a great blessing to have added two seminarians to our team recently!

There is a unique event coming up at St. Anne’s in Chassel: the Living Stations of the Cross on Wednesday of Holy Week, April 12th, 5:30 pm. Put it on your calendar!

I am very grateful to Fr. Jose Cherian for covering this weekend while I am at the Spring Campus Ministry Retreat. As pastor of St. Al’s, and Director of Campus Ministry for the diocese, I need to be there. As Vocations Director, it is also a great time to get to know the young leaders from around our diocese, and to encourage them in discernment! Pray for the students who are on retreat this weekend!

Our St. Al’s Scholarship Applications are also available at the back of church. They’re due on Friday, March 31st, so pick one up now!

This coming week there will be extra Masses on Tuesday and Thursday at 12:15 pm, to assist you in your Lenten prayer!

Consider attending the Chrism Mass in Marquette in a couple weeks on Thursday, April 6th, at 3 pm. It is a beautiful and grace-filled liturgy!
God Bless, Fr. Ben
