Jesus is risen from the dead, Alleluia, Alleluia!!! I love this image, depicting Mary Magdalene at the empty tomb at the moment when she mistakes the Risen Lord for the gardener! She's not so far off... just as Adam was entrusted with the garden to keep and to tend, so Jesus is the New Adam, the Good Shepherd, who guides His flock to green pastures!

These have been very full days of prayer together since Palm Sunday! We have walked with the Lord in sorrow, in apparent defeat, in joy! We discover that the Lord Jesus is at our side at every moment and in all things. How will you walk with Him this week? Where is He inviting you to know His presence and grace in your daily life?

Thank you to everyone who helped with Holy Week liturgies, decorations, our Easter Flowers, etc.!

We have a great book for Easter, one we had last Easter as well: The Case for Jesus by Brant Pitre. He digs deeply into a basic question: Why Jesus? Can we believe the Gospels? Many people ask these questions... whether you're answering questions you have, or getting equipped to answer your family and friends' questions, this book is a great resource!

Please continue to share the small pocket Gospels of John, as we have many still left! The Easter Season is a tremendous time to encounter the testimony of the Beloved Disciple, and to share it with others!

Please pray in a special way in these days for all those who were baptized, or entered into Full Communion with the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil! It is a great joy for us as the Body of Christ to welcome them!

I am grateful for Jack Kinnunen's help during the liturgies! Please pray for our seminarians, and for men discerning priesthood in our diocese! We need faithful men and women in every vocation and every state in life, but we are in particular need for more good and holy men to be priests! Come Holy Spirit, bring us the vocations we need to flourish!

I will be traveling to Washington D.C. for an alumni gathering for St. Al's Monday-Wednesday. On a very practical note, please bring your Rice Bowls in soon!

Lots coming up in the final weeks!
