Catholic Social Teaching Corner:

-Today we celebrate that God is redeeming us and the world through Christ's birth, life, death and resurrection in a real human family. God is incarnate in the midst of our chaotic world because he desires to free us from sin, fear and death. As we meditate with gratitude this great gift of love, our minds and hearts must remember our brothers and sisters whose need may overcome any sense of gratitude. This day pray for those who are alone and without the love of family around them, for families living in cars or on streets, for those who will starve this day. God is saving them, but are we being neighbor and family to them?

-On January 1, Catholics around the world celebrate the first day of the New Year as the World Day of Peace in honor of Mary Mother of God with a special message from our Holy Father. For the 2015 World Day of Peace, Pope Francis challenges all of us to recognize every person as a brother or sister with God-given dignity through his message: "Slaves No More, But Brothers and Sisters." Follow Pope Francis' call to end human trafficking and slave labor.
