COACH LEAH MATTINGLY

Coach Leah was an all-conference player and team captain at Ball State University, where she set the program record for most games played in a career. In 2011 Leah led her Providence team to an undefeated state championship and was named News-Tribune High School Player of the Year. Leah believes soccer can be a useful tool to share one's belief in Jesus Christ with others.

COACH CHELSEA GROVER

Coach Chelsea played four years for Western Kentucky University and was named Team Captain her senior year. In her younger years she won five State Cup title, and also participated in the Olympic Development Program. Chelsea says, "Soccer has taught me many valuable life lessons, such as the importance of teamwork, leadership, responsibility and perseverance."

COACH CASEY MARLIN

Coach Casey "Peanut" Marlin is the all-time leading scorer at Providence with 96 career goals. She then took her talents Lenoir-Rhyne University where she led her team to 4 consecutive conference championships, and an Elite Eight finish in the NCAA Tournament. Casey believes, "The best players are those who work the hardest when nobody is watching, and who care more about their teammates than themselves."

COACH DAVE SMITH

Coach Dave's Providence H.S. girls have captured 10 Sectional Titles, along with four Regionals, three Elite Eights and appeared in two IHSA 1A State Championships, winning in 2011. Dave founded the Net-Surfers Futbol Club in 1994. A USSF Licensed coach, Coach Dave believes in creating a positive environment where we

"Play hard, play fair & most importantly have fun!"
