

St. Anastasia Parish and Touriffic Travel present:

Pilgrimage to St. John Neumann Shrine

With visit to Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul

Thursday, October 24, 2019

DAYTRIP ITINERARY:

- 8:00am Depart Newtown Towers (Rear of Bldg. A) 3400 West Chester Pike, Newtown Square via deluxe Motorcoach
- 9-11:30am Arrive at St. John Neumann Shrine in Philadelphia. Guided tour and talk of Upper Church and Lower Shrine and visit the newly renovated Museum completed in April of this year dedicated to the life and death of St. John Neumann and his amazing life which displays old photographs, sculptures, books, jewelry, and exhibits relating to the life of the saint. You will also view a 15-minute Testimonial Video in their new Media Room. Time in Gift Shop afterwards.
- 12-1:30pm Lunch at historic City Tavern, prepared by Chef Walter Staib, who is best known on his show “A taste of history” brings culinary cuisine to your table. Inspired by 18th Century colonial America, history abounds with waitstaff dressed in period costumes.
- 2:00pm Welcome to the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul. A Cathedral Ambassador will take you on a private tour. The cathedral church is the principal church of the diocese because it is here that the bishop as local ordinary of the diocese has his throne (chair), called the cathedra. Open since 1864, the cathedral is the mother church of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. It is the largest brownstone structure in Philadelphia and the largest Catholic Church in Pennsylvania.

- 4:00pm Depart Cathedral
- 5:00pm Return to Newtown Towers
