A note from Father Albert: The common theme of this Sunday's readings is that the greedy acquisition of wealth and power is futile, because everything and everyone is "here today and gone tomorrow." So the meaning of life cannot be found in selfishly hoarding wealth and possessions, but only in sharing these with the needy. In the Gospel, Jesus, telling the parable of the foolish rich man, warns us against all types of greed, because greed takes our life's focus away from God and away from serving and loving Him in other people. He further says that God calls the greedy rich man a fool because the man thought he would not die soon and that he was not accountable for the way he used his riches. The parable reminds us that our possessions are merely loaned to us by God, and that we are accountable for their use. We must be generous in sharing our time, our treasure, and our talents in Christian stewardship. Even if we are poor financially, we may be blessed with intelligence, good will, a sense of humor or the ability to console, encourage, inspire and support and help others. God expects us to give our thanks to Him for all these blessings by sharing them with others for His glory.

Reflecting on generous giving, I would like to mention our brothers and sisters who generously gave their time and talents on 23rd of July when our Bishop McManus came to celebrate mass to honor our Patron St. Anne. I express my gratitude to the Special Choir group organized by Kathy and Matt for their melodious singing; Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers and Decorators for their service to have wonderful liturgy; Jennifer Garden and her companions for their refreshments; St. Anne staff for their planning; and finally everyone for your presence and prayerful support. God bless us
