THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WE WELCOME ALL VISITORS TO ST. ANNE PARISH. IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO JOIN OUR FAITH COMMUNITY, PLEASE CALL THE PARISH OFFICE TO REGISTER AS AN ACTIVE MEMBER. MAY GOD BLESS YOU.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK:

How does your commitment to Jesus Christ affect your life? Our faith is not just a private affair but something that influences all of our relationships. Our baptism brings us into a very intimate relationship with God and makes us a brother or a sister to all of God's children. That identity we share colors how we relate to them and the level of responsibility we have to them.

If we open ourselves to truly receive our God as Father and those with whom we journey as brothers and sisters, it can profoundly change and affect us. How has your baptism changed you?

Reflections on today's Gospel ~ Matthew 10:37-42

"Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." When Jesus says paradoxical things like this, we can still trust him. Even when he makes claims that, at first glance, seem impossible, we know that he's not talking gibberish. Why? Because Jesus lived the ultimate paradox: he brought life out of death. His resurrection proves for us that things are not always as they appear. The Crucifixion, which looked like the end of Jesus' influence, was actually a tremendous new beginning.

So when Jesus promises that we will find life through a kind of death, we shouldn't question his claim. Of course in today's Gospel, Jesus isn't necessarily talking about physical death, although the "red" martyrs who suffer for him do in fact find their reward in eternal life. "White" martyrdom, on the other hand, is a kind of death to self that doesn't involve bloodshed. It means putting love and generous service ahead of our own self-gratification. It means doing these things for the sake of Christ. When he tells us to love our neighbors as ourselves, this is what he's talking about.

So, how can we be white martyrs today? How can we sacrifice our desire for perfect comfort, or entertainment on demand, or status or pleasure or sleep or whatever else for the sake of serving another person? In our families, in our schools and workplaces, in our parishes, in our neighborhoods and our communities, there are myriad opportunities to "lose our lives" for the sake of Christ. But don't forget, in dying to ourselves, we will find our lives in a new way! The fulfillment Christ offers us in return, both now and in eternity, will be far better than anything we try to cling to on our own.

"Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.

Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindred's and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom your Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to your law, we may show forth your praise among the nations of the earth.

In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble, do not allow our trust in you to fall; all this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord." AMEN! ~ George Washington

SPRING BAZAAR ~ 2017

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings. We have just finished our St. Anne Spring Bazaar and it was a great opportunity for the parishioners to come together to experience a wonderful time that everyone seemed to enjoy. It was so good that people started asking whether we could extend it for a few more days. There were also people who asked whether we are going to do it every year? It was also a fun event for many people outside of the parish. At this juncture, we need to extend a very large thank you to everyone who helped out with our Spring Shopping Bazaar. When the suggestion of a yard sale was announced, Karla Reuter volunteered to run it and she did an excellent job. Special thanks go to her. Thank you to everyone who donated items, who sorted all the items during the month and helped setup, helped cook and run the concession stand, helped to run the different venues at the event, hand out flyers, and who stayed to help clean up afterwards. Also, thank you to all who came and participated by shopping, we couldn't have done it without you. Also, we need to thank Saver's in Marlborough who helped make this possible by accepting all of the items we did not sell, and giving additional money to our parish for these goods. Savers is a nonprofit organization that also supports the Epilepsy Foundation. Thanks go to Greg Conigliaro, who helped us to transport all the unsold items to Savers. Everyone's support is very much appreciated!!

God bless ~ Fr. Albert
