It was Saints Anne and Joachim, the parents of Mary who nurtured Mary, taught her, brought her up to be a worthy Mother of God. It was their teaching that led her to respond to God's request with faith, "Let it be done to me as you will." It was their example of parenting that Mary must have followed as she brought up her own son, Jesus. It was their faith that laid the foundation of courage and strength that allowed her to stand by the cross as her son was crucified and still believe.

Parish Information

My dear parishioners,
Hope everyone is having great summer and wish you God's blessings and hope to see you soon.

As some of you might have noticed in our church, or some might see when you return after summer break, we have moved the tabernacle to the center of the church. The move is done with the consultation of our Worcester Diocese, Parish Council and some parishioners. As the Canon states "the tabernacle in which the blessed Eucharist is reserved should be sited in a distinguished place in a church or oratory, a place which is conspicuous, suitably adorned and conducive to prayer". (Canon 938.2). Our church being small and having two side entrances, keeping the tabernacle on one side of the entrance is not conducive for us to remember easily and give reverence to our Lord when we enter the church. Also, by placing the tabernacle at the center of our church will remind us that Jesus is center of our life and the Church.

In the Diocese of Worcester extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are not permitted to open and close the tabernacle to retrieve or repose the Holy Eucharist. This action is reserved to the Bishop, Priest, or Deacon. Having the tabernacle at the center will help the presider to open and close the tabernacle easily. It also helps us to bring our Patron Saint Anne statue inside our church, which had been in the Sacristy for long time.

I like to cite what Fr. Charlie Becker says in his spiritual talk for rebuilding America. He says that "truly good Catholic Church should have three blessings: The tabernacle of Jesus is in the center of the church (Blessed Sacrament), Blessed Mother Statue is in the sanctuary and the pope is respected by the priests "Blessed are you Peter" the pope. Based on this, we can say that we have a good Catholic Church.

Pray that this change will help us to give more respect and reverence to our Living God With prayers, Fr. Albert

This week's readings:

Amos 7:12-15 - Amos called by God to prophecy
Ephesians 1:3-14 - Blessing for Jew and Gentile
Mark 6:7-13 - The mission of the Twelve

LEAVE IT ALL BEHIND

The instructions Jesus gives to the twelve apostles in this Gospel reading are still relevant for us today, even if we don't think we are called to leave our home and families to be traveling missionaries.

First, the note that Jesus sends disciples out two by two echoes throughout the rest of the New Testament. Why did Jesus want his disciples to travel in pairs? As a human himself, he recognized the value of companionship. We are social beings, and even introverts need the support, wisdom, and love of others. Being a disciple is challenging, and we can burn out quickly if we don't have others to help us on our journey. Also, a spouse (and St. Paul makes it clear that some of the pairs that were missionaries together were married couples), friend, or fellow disciple can be a sounding board, consultant, or trusted confidante as we navigate the questions and difficulties of our discipleship work.

Traveling in pairs or larger groups also forces people to confront their selfishness and practice "walking the walk" rather than just "talking the talk." It's easy to preach love and repentance, but harder to model it, especially with the people we are closest to.

The disciples are challenged to take nothing for their journey but a walking stick. Talk about an exercise in trust and detachment! Just imagining setting out like that challenges us to evaluate what we are attached to materially. Finally, Jesus teaches the disciples to appreciate and receive the gifts of those who treat them well and to walk away when they are not accepted. This is yet another invitation to trust: trust others who want to share generously, and trust that there are times and places we are not called to stay.
