

For part of Holy Week, His Eminence Metropolitan Alexios was on the Holy Mountain in The Holy and Great Monastery of Vatopaidi where he was tonsured a monk 53 years ago on the Saturday of Lazarus.

During these days, he was praying for the well-being of His flock. He especially was praying for enlightenment and sanctification of our Orthodox Youth.

His heart and prayers are with all the faithful of the Holy Metropolis of Atlanta during the Bright Week of our Orthodox Church. He prayerfully sends His heart-felt blessings for a blessed Holy Week and the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
