Around the Diocese

"Contemplating the Presence of God in our Daily Lives," a day of reflection, will be held March 22 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Belton. Participants will take time to reflect on personal aspects of their lives that help identify who they are as a child of God. The cost is $35 per person. To register, contact Cedarbrake at \(254\) 780-2436 or cedarbrake@austindiocese.org.

The diocesan Pastoral Plan survey is now available on the diocesan website at www.austindiocese.org. This survey will provide significant input in the development of the new Pastoral Plan because of its broad availability to the Catholic population. To access the survey, visit www.austindiocese.org, complete it and then invite as many others as possible to do the same. Most importantly, please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide our diocese in this process as we plan for the future.

Message from Our Pastor

Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you. This weekend we congratulate those of Sts. Cyril and Methodius and Holy Trinity parishes who are receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. May the Holy Spirit be with them always to lead and guide them in the life of faith. During the season of Lent we are invited to "let go" of things that hinder our relationship with God and with one another. But, even though we may know what we are to "let go" of, we seem to be unable or unwilling to "let go". We cling to many things and as long as we cling to these things we are unable to cling to God. Attached to this bulletin is an article about forgetting the past. Oftentimes our past hinders our future. It has become an obstacle to us, preventing us from moving forward in our life of faith and in our relationship to God and to one another. We hold resentment and anger deep within us. The time has come for us to "let go" of this if we really want to live in the freedom of God's kingdom. I invite you to read this bulletin insert and pray about what it is you are holding on to that is bringing unnecessary misery and pain, that which keeps you from living a life of joy. Ask the Lord to help free you from whatever it may be so that you can drop it from your hands and fully embrace the love of God.

In today's readings God calls Abram (Abraham) to leave the land of his upbringing and to go to a new land where he will be blessed and made into a great nation. In faith Abraham does as the Lord asks of him, not knowing where the Lord will take him and his family. Abraham had great trust in God. Can you imagine doing something like this, leaving everything behind to go and do what God is asking of you? In today's Gospel Jesus asks the same thing of Peter, James and John. He invites them to go with Him up the mountain to pray. They do as Jesus asks of them and after a long and tiring journey up the mountain they experience the glory and grandeur of God as Moses and Elijah appear before them and speak to Jesus. In our own life of faith we may not know exactly where God is taking us. The road of life may be long and difficult. We may find it very exhausting to the point where we think we are not able to continue. But, by faith, we know that if we continue to do what God asks of us and we continue to walk with Him by leading a life of faithfulness, then we will see His glory and grandeur at the end of life's journey. Pray that you will have enough trust and faith in our Lord to be able to follow Him in through all the ups and downs of this life so that you may be with Him forever in the life which is yet to come.

Jesus wants us to experience His presence and His love in a very unique and personal way. All we have to do is to make ourselves available to Him so that this may happen. We make ourselves available by spending time in prayer with Him, by attending Mass, by going to confession, and by participating in various devotions such as the Stations of the Cross. If we do not do these things, if we do not accept His invitation and go to the mountain top with Him, then we will never experience what He has for us. Try to be faithful to your prayer life, to attending Mass every week, and, attending weekday Masses when possible, to making a good confession and by attending the Stations of the Cross. Spend time with our Lord, both alone and in unity with one another, and you will have a unique experience of His love for you. Come to the Stations of the Cross every week during this season of Lent and do all you can to help yourself to grow in the love and life of Jesus. God has given us so much and continues to give us all we need, and more, so that we may live a life of love and joy. Open yourself to what God is giving to you. Don't close the door in His face. May this season of Lent be all that it is meant to be for you and your family.
