The Gulf Coast Catholic Men's Conference is a 501c3 non-profit organization of Catholic men in the Texas Gulf Coast area looking to help other men become genuine disciples of Christ through a spiritual and inspirational experience from the annual conference. The 2019 conference is Saturday - March 9, 2019 at the historic Sylvan Beach Pavilion in La Porte, TX.

The event will start at 8:00 am and end by 3:00 pm and will be hosted by Joe McClane - General Manager of KHSJ 1430 AM Catholic Radio in Houston. The featured speaker will be author, activist, and evangelist, Mark Houck - the founder and president of The Kings Men's ministry and creator of national retreats Into the Wild and Samson for men. Other speakers include a special father and son duo with local seminarian Deacon David Michael Moses and his father Rex Moses and their many active ministries like Concert from Life, the Gabriel Project and Rachel's Refuge. Also, Tim Scott from Austin tells his story behind Mitscoots - a grass-roots ministry to serve and employ the poor. In addition to the speakers, the event includes Mass, music, and fellowship.

Cost is $40 for early bird tickets through March 5th and $45 from March 5th until the day of the Conference. Groups and students may register at $35. Seminarians and Clergy are free. The cost includes continental breakfast, lunch, and drinks/snacks. Conference officials state that no one will be turned away because of an inability to pay.

There will be vendor booths for local and national Catholic organizations and various men's ministries. Booth availability is limited and on a first come basis. Sponsorship opportunities are also available which include both print and media promotions. For more information or to register, visit the conference web site at www.gc-cmc.org.
