“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask Him, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that in our culture we often confuse what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

GLENMARY
HOME MISSIONERS

Building the Church in Mission Land, USA

We welcome Father Dominic Duggins of the Glenmary Home Missioners, who will be speaking at our weekend Masses on behalf of the home mission work of Glenmary priests, brothers and coworkers. Ordained to the priesthood in 1974,

Father Duggins' pastoral assignments have included mission parishes in Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Georgia, and Oklahoma. He has also served as Director of the Glenmary House of Studies in Washington, DC, as a member of the Executive Council, and as Glenmary's Director of Development.

This special collection is our opportunity to support evangelization in the home missions. Those who do not respond in today's collection can make their offering in a designated envelope next weekend.

Welcome to our Saint Joseph Parish family, Father Duggins.

We are required to annually publish the Volunteer's Code of Conduct. This applies to any and all volunteers within the church that may have contact with minors. Remember to keep all volunteers in your prayers, especially for the upcoming PSR school year. Thank you!

Volunteer's Code of Conduct

Our children are the most important gifts God has entrusted to us. As a volunteer, I promise to strictly follow the rules and guidelines in this Volunteer's Code of Conduct as a condition of my providing services to the children and youth of our [parish, school, facility, diocese, etc.].

As a volunteer, I will:

- Treat everyone with respect, loyalty, patience, integrity, courtesy, dignity, and consideration.
- Avoid situations where I am alone with children and/or youth at Church activities.
- Use positive reinforcement rather than criticism, competition, or comparison when working with children and/or youth.
- Refuse to accept expensive gifts from children and/or youth or their parents without prior written approval from the pastor or administrator.
- Refrain from giving expensive gifts to children and/or youth without prior written approval from the parents or guardian and the pastor or administrator.
- Report suspected abuse to the pastor, administrator, or appropriate supervisor and [the local Child Protection Services agency]. I understand that failure to report suspected abuse to civil authorities is, according to the law, a misdemeanor.
- Cooperate fully in any investigation of abuse of children and/or youth.

As a volunteer, I will not:

- Smoke or use tobacco products in the presence of children and/or youth.
- Use, possess, or be under the influence of alcohol at any time while volunteering.
- Use, possess, or be under the influence of illegal drugs at any time.
- Pose any health risk to children and/or youth (i.e., no fevers or other contagious situations).
- Strike, spank, shake, or slap children and/or youth.
- Humiliate, ridicule, threaten, or degrade children and/or youth.
- Touch a child and/or youth in a sexual or other inappropriate manner.
- Use any discipline that frightens or humiliates children and/or youth.
- Use profanity in the presence of children and/or youth.

I understand that as a volunteer working with children and/or youth, I am subject to a thorough background check including criminal history. I understand that any action inconsistent with this Code of Conduct or failure to take action mandated by this Code of Conduct may result in my removal as a volunteer with children and/or youth.

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Pope Francis Sends Telegram for Tragedy in Nice

'Condemning such acts again, His Holiness Pope Francis expresses his deep sorrow and his spiritual closeness to the French people.'

Pope Francis has sent his condolences to the loved ones of the victims of the tragedy that took place last night in the French city of Nice, claiming 84 lives and wounding dozens, leaving at least 15 -18 in critical condition. During a Bastille Day fireworks celebration, a terrorist of Franco-Tunisian descent drove a truck into the crowds that had been watching. After traveling two kilometers, eventually the driver was killed in a shootout with the police. Below is a translation of the French telegram:

His Excellency André Marceau, Bishop of Nice:

While France was celebrating its national day, blind violence struck again the country in Nice, causing many casualties, including children. Condemning such acts again, His Holiness Pope Francis expresses his deep sorrow and his spiritual closeness to the French people. He entrusts to God's mercy those who lost their lives, and joins with the pain of the bereaved families. He has expressed his sympathy to those wounded and to all those who came to their aid, asking the Lord to support each in need. Imploring God for the gift of peace and harmony, Pope Francis sends to the grieving families and all the French people the benefit of divine blessings.
