Church Picnic

Save the Date:
 August 20, 2017

Welcome to all of the visitors here this weekend. We are glad you joined us. Please take with you the prayers of our St. Joseph Parish Family for a safe journey. We hope you will have an opportunity to share the Liturgy with us again soon.

Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion,

Shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!

See, your king shall come to you... His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. Zechariah 9:9

Announcements

- Next weekend we welcome Father Tandoh who will speak about the Spiritians and their mission work around the world.
- Parents of Holy Communion and Confirmation students, their certificates are available in the office for pick up.
- Welcome to Maria Vonada as our new Director of Religious Education.

Welcome to Maria Vonada as our new Director of Religious Education for St. Joseph Parish

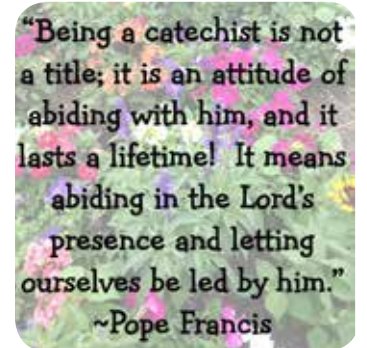

Maria Vonada comes to us most recently as the Director of Adult Faith Formation from St. Mary's in Delaware. Previously she was the Coordinator for the Parish School of Religion there, as well as a PSR teacher for 3rd through 8th grades.

Originally from Dayton, she has a Master's Degree in Religious Education. She and her husband Nathan, have two daughters, both in college. They currently live in Delaware.

Please join Father Trapp in welcoming Maria and her family to our parish.

May the Lord always be with you, showering His blessings on you and those whose lives you touch in faith education and growing in the deep knowledge of His unending love.

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."
- MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us.

BISHOP'S 2017 ANNUAL APPEAL

Thank you to all who have returned their pledge to support the BAA. Every dollar over goal comes back to St. Joseph tax-free. We will be earmarking these funds to re-supply the building maintenance fund. Thank you!

Megan Will's Nurses Without Borders trip to the Dominican Republic

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Thank you all so much for all of your support and donations toward my medical mission trip to the Dominican! Thanks to you, we had enough money to buy individual kits consisting of a stethoscope, blood pressure cuff, penlight, and clipboard, for each of the nursing students at a technical school to keep for their own. They were so very thankful. We were also fortunate enough to teach these students physical assessment skills as well, which is something we would have never been able to do in the past. Our group visited four different clinic sites and treated upwards of 1,000 patients during the week. It's hard to believe in our land of plenty that something as simple as acetaminophen or daily vitamins are so unobtainable to the families we served. This trip has been truly life-changing and it was all possible because of my amazing parish! Please feel free to ask me about my experiences because I have so many and love to share! I can't wait to go back next year. God's Blessings to all of you.

July 15 & 16 - Mission Appeal by Father Francis Landoh

Reverend Francis Landoh will be visiting St. Joseph next weekend to speak at each Mass concerning the work of the Spiritans ~ the Congregation of the Holy Spirit, which operates missions around the world. Below is a sketch of the Spiritans Mission History. For more information please visit their website at <http://spiritans.org>.

"As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (John 20:21) "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all peoples everywhere." (Matthew 28:19). By their baptism all Christians are incorporated into the Missio Dei, God's revelation of self - this mission of God has a Church, of which we are a part. The Church takes very seriously this "missionary mandate" of Jesus. For this the Spiritans were founded as a religious congregation, in Paris, in 1700. It began as a seminary for impoverished candidates for the priesthood, to serve the poor of rural France. Soon the "Spiritans" of this Seminary of the Holy Spirit were sending priests to the French overseas territories in Canada, the Caribbean and in the Indian Ocean.

After the French Revolution had decimated the congregation it was re-founded in the 1840's by a charismatic Jewish convert, Francis Mary Paul Libermann, to serve the most abandoned by society, freed slaves and other people of color. Africa became the focus of the renewed congregation: the Spiritans were the first modern-day missionaries in West Africa (1840's) and in East Africa (1860's). The Spiritans' charism has been first: evangelization of peoples who have never heard the Gospel message, and then, inculturation: adaptation of that message into the diverse cultures and traditions of these people. They do this by means of establishing a self-sufficient local church with its own clergy, establishing schools and clinics, and aiding in local development projects.

The Spiritans came to this country in the 1870's known then as the "Holy Ghost Fathers." They ministered to immigrant and ethnic populations, including African-Americans, French, Germans, Poles, in urban ghettos and the rural South. For much of the last century the Spiritans supplied priests for many of St. Katherine Drexel's works with "the poor and the abandoned", the marginalized of society. The United States Province of the Congregation began in Pittsburgh, then expanded to Philadelphia, Harlem in New York, New England, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, throughout the rural South, and then to the Southwest and California.

In keeping with the historical preference of the congregation, American Spiritans began going to East Africa in the 1920's. Having established many local churches in what is now Tanzania, the Spiritans have been engaged with the Maasai people, the well known herders in the semi-deserts of the Serengeti Plains, as well as many other tribes: Chagga, Meru, and Warsusha. Ministry with refugees from the wars in East Africa has become more a focus. We have begun work with the Aborigines of Australia. For years we have been working in Puerto Rico, Mexico and the Dominican Republic. Currently American Spiritans, along with conferees from Africa, are working in the Philippines, Taiwan and Vietnam, the homeland of many conferees.

One-third of the 7 billion peoples of the world are Christian of one sort or another. That leaves two-thirds who have not yet heard the Gospel in any meaningful way. And so God's mission continues to be in your hands and hearts.

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 17, 2017. The 2017 theme will be “Living as Missionary Disciples.” Those who the Community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

The Catholic Foundation Steward

On June 22, The Catholic Foundation held a Mass and ceremony to install the St. John Fisher Stewards for the Diocese of Columbus. St. John Fisher is the patron saint of The Catholic Foundation and his icon was dedicated at the luncheon at the foundation headquarters across from the Cathedral.

Since my duties of Grand Knight are at an end, I was asked by the foundation, and approved by Fr. Trapp, to be the liaison at St. Joseph Parish for The Catholic Foundation. Over the coming year I hope to have some informational events to explain what the Foundation does for, not only St. Joseph Parish, but all the parishes in the Columbus Diocese, as well as many catholic approved charities in our community.

If you are interested in creating a self-directed charitable fund or would like to make small contributions to existing funds, I will be glad to get you the information you need.

I will NOT be trying to sell anything but rather be there to give you the information and/or direct you to the people who can help you set up a fund for your charitable contributions to the Parish or any other charity organization of your choosing.

If you have question for me or if you would like some information about The Catholic Foundation, you may contact me at (614) 891-1962 or cjhaaser@gmail.com.

Thank you, Carl Haaser

July is a five Sunday month, so that means we will have a special collection on July 30th for St. Martin de Porres. Also, in your monthly packet is an envelope for the building fund: $5 for 5. Thank you for your generous support.

"Please join us for "A Garden Party" on Saturday, July 15, 2017, 6:00 p.m., $125.00/person to benefit Hope Hollow. Hope Hollow is a non-profit organization, founded by Jane Jacquemin-Clark and Kevin Clark, parishioners of Holy Name parish, whose mission is to provide lodging, meals, transportation, hospitality and emotional support to persons with cancer and their loved ones, who are in financial need, while they are traveling to Columbus, Ohio for their cancer treatment. We will enjoy hors d'oeuvres and drinks, a delicious dinner and great entertainment by singer and songwriter, Matt Munhall. Hosted by Kim Knoppe and Marian Hutson, 376 Partridge Bend, Powell, Ohio. Go to hopehollow.com and click on "A Garden Party" to register and for more information!"

Pope Francis' General Audience: 'Christians Witness Hope That Faith Inspires'

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In our continuing catechesis on Christian hope, we now look to the example of the martyrs. Their hope gave them the strength even to die for their faith in Christ. The Lord himself warned his followers that, in proclaiming the Kingdom of God, they would encounter opposition and hostility in this world of sin and injustice. Jesus asks his disciples to proclaim the Gospel by their lives of detachment from wealth and power, by their rejection of the spiral of hatred, violence and retaliation, and by their trust in his triumph over the power of sin and death. As his followers, we know that the Lord will never abandon us. By imitating the example of his own self-sacrifice and love, we demonstrate our faith and hope in him and we become his witnesses before the world. In this sense, every Christian is a "martyr", a witness to the sure hope that faith inspires. The martyrs who even today lay down their lives for the faith do so out of love. By their example and intercession, may we become ever more convincing witnesses, above all in the events of our daily lives, to our undying hope in the promises of Christ.
