	$2,123*

*These numbers do not reflect on-line Giving

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" – JOHN 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical, out of obligation, or do you share freely out of love?

Tomorrow is May Crowning at 5:30 pm at the PAC for the PSR students in grades 1-6. We will have a blessing and planting of a tree to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese of Columbus.

Each student should bring their rosary and a stem flower to this closing ceremony of another great PSR school year. ALL PARISHIONERS ARE INVITED.

Bible Time Line Class Begins June 6: St. Joseph Parish is excited to announce a new bible study beginning June 6 - Aug 8, 7 pm - 9 pm.

We will use Jeff Cavins “Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible” to give us the big picture on how historical events tie in with the stories of the Bible.

A workbook is available at: <https://ascensionpress.com/studies/28438/registrations/new> Baby Bottles for the New Path Pregnancy Resource Center, a Christian, Pro-Life Ministry, will be available next weekend. The campaign runs between Mother’s Day and Father’s Day. Please pick up a bottle, fill it up and return on Father’s Day, June 17. This life-affirming, educational ministry is vital to helping women in need right here in our area. Thank you!

Sunday Mass Time Change May 20, 2018

Sunday Mass at the PAC will change to summer hours on May 20, to 10:30 am.

Congratulations to Jon and Jennifer Gloenkner on the Christening of their daughter, Lydia Rose.

Dear Lord, please keep this daughter of yours safe and happy and surrounded by your love. Bless her parents and family with your wisdom and grace to continue her faith for the rest of her life. Amen.

There is a special envelope available for you to use to honor your mother with a donation to help supply new altar linens. If you would like to make a donation please drop it in the weekly offertory.

Keep your eye on Eternity

Congratulations to the St. Joseph Confirmation Class of 2018!

Thank you to our Director of Religious Education, Maria Vonada for her tireless work and all of the PSR teachers through the years that have prepared these young men and women to carry on their faith and have a rich understanding of how the Holy Spirit will be their guide in the years to come. May the love of Jesus Christ be on your mind, your lips, and your heart forever. Amen.

CATECHISM MINUTE:

What does the Catechism say about the Ascension of Our Lord?

The Ascension of our Lord is described in Part I , The Profession of Faith:

659 "So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God." Christ's body was glorified at the moment of his Resurrection, as proved by the new and supernatural properties it subsequently and permanently enjoys. But during the forty days when he eats and drinks familiarly with his disciples and teaches them about the kingdom, his glory remains veiled under the appearance of ordinary humanity. Jesus' final apparition ends with the irreversible entry of his humanity into divine glory, symbolized by the cloud and by heaven, where he is seated from that time forward at God's right hand. Only in a wholly exceptional and unique way would Jesus show himself to Paul "as to one untimely born", in a last apparition that established him as an apostle.

What does this mean?

The Ascension occurred 40 days after His Resurrection on Easter Sunday. At His Ascension, the Lord Jesus ascended Body and Soul into heaven (Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:9-11). The Ascension took place in broad daylight on the Mount of Olives, in the presence of His Apostles and disciples.

The 40 day period between the Resurrection of Our Lord and His Ascension into heaven is described by the Catechism of the Catholic Church as a time "when He eats and drinks familiarly with His disciples and teaches them about the Kingdom" (Catechism, 659; see also: Mark 16:12; Luke 24:15; John 20:14-15, 21:4; and Acts 1:3, 10:41).

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Jesus' heavenly glory was "veiled under the appearance of ordinary humanity" (Catechism, 659). This means that although "Christ's Body was glorified at the moment of His Resurrection, as proved by the new and supernatural properties it subsequently and permanently enjoys" (Luke 24:31; John 20:19, 26) – the disciples saw Him and experienced Him in such a way that even though He was risen from the dead and glorified, He looked like He did when he lived with them on earth.

When we speak of the "supernatural properties" of the Lord's Risen Body, we are speaking of the characteristics that Jesus' human body now possesses after its glorification in the Resurrection. These qualities or characteristics include:

- ~ Jesus' bearing in His glorified Body the marks of the five wounds (John 20:20) – as an eternal testimony of His love.
- ~ Jesus' Risen Body possessed agility – that is, He could move swiftly as thought to any place He willed or chose.
- ~ Jesus' Risen Body possessed subtlety or spirituality, which means that His Body was free from hunger, thirst, fatigue, and other physical needs. He was also able to pass through solid material substances, like doors and walls (John 20:19).
- ~ Jesus' Risen Body possessed clarity or brightness, which means it shone in heavenly splendor.
- ~ Jesus' Risen Body also had the characteristic of impassibility, which means that His Risen Body was immune to suffering, pain, disease, or death.

Our Lord's Risen Body is the very same body He took from the Blessed Virgin Mary at the moment He became Man; it is the same Body He had throughout His earthly life; but, in the Resurrection, this earthly Body of His was wonderfully transformed into the glorified state It now possesses. After Jesus' Resurrection and the glorification of His Body, we now speak of His glorified Body.

All people will rise from the dead when Jesus Christ Our Lord returns in glory "to judge the living and the dead." It must be made clear that only those who have been faithful to Christ will share in His glory. Like Christ, we too will rise from the dead by Jesus' power at work in us. We will rise to glory on the Last Day, when our bodies will be reunited with our souls. Those pitiable souls who were unfaithful to God or who rejected His offer of salvation will be damned – separated from Him forever!

Over the summer months we will explore the Catechism of the Catholic Church. We invite you to ask any questions about the Catechism and submit them to: bulletin@saintjosephplaincity.com.
