Liturgical Tidbits

During the Mass and at other liturgies there are moments when the presider will engage those present in dialogue. We are most familiar with the repeated greeting, "The Lord be with you." And of course we all know the response, "And with your spirit." But what may not be so obvious, especially for us who sit in Mass every week, is that this is a real dialogue. The words are not ours, because we are praying the liturgy and not in a private way. However, we must never forget that we all have a role to play, a place of participation in offering the Sacrifice of the Mass, so remember to say these words as if they were your own. It is by this participation that we proclaim our oneness as a Church in faith, hope, and love.

FROM THE PASTOR'S

DESK

Dear family,

I remember an experience once as I was going through the RCIA process. I was just learning most of my prayers, including the prayer before meals. My family had only usually said "grace" before important meals, like on Thanksgiving Day. I had sat down to eat at a restaurant with a non-Catholic friend and before I ate, I remembered the new way of life I was adopting. I have to admit, I was a little embarrassed. What would my friend say? What would other people think? Maybe certain people would think I was a "holy roller." I prayed and invited my friend who joined me and the looks were minimal. As I sat and thought about it later, I realized that I should not be ashamed, but proud. I also realized that God, despite my faults, has never been ashamed of me, but only ever embraces and loves me. Dear family, each of your lives has been purchased and you have all been sealed by the Cross of Christ at your baptism: your faith IS your truest identity. So don't make my mistake and be ashamed, you are loved and have been anointed in the truth of His Church. We are called to proclaim our faith the way a lover proclaims his love from the rooftops. So as you are out and about, proclaim your faith with conviction and with the joy it brings you! In His joy, Reverend Father Daniel J. Gutierrez
