Dear family,

It has turned out to be quite the busy month in both looking and planning for the year ahead and taking care of everything associated with getting ready for the winter. I do have some "work" for all of you, however. This week our children return to their religious education and sacramental preparation classes. In addition, adults will be starting the RCIA process this coming week to look forward to next Easter when they will be fully initiated into the sacramental life of the Church. We know that when we move close to God, we must prepare for battle with our own broken tendencies and the selfish evil that seeks to be a stumbling block in the life of grace. Prayers work, so please support these individuals who are the future of the life of our parish and universal Church.

The theme in today's readings is one often discussed, but rarely used properly: forgiveness. We all know that in general "forgiveness" is a good thing. Forgiveness brings healing and reconciliation to our relationships and can mean the difference between hope and hurt. Our Lord teaches us that forgiveness is applied when sin has left a "debt" in our relationships. It's important and often forgotten, that mercy can only be discussed if we can face our own sins, and the real effects that sin has on our world and the world at large. Secondly, the forgiveness that we should give is connected and related to our own experience of being forgiven. Let us learn to both accept and give God's healing mercy in our relationships.

In his joy, Rev. Fr. Daniel J. Gutierrez.

ARE YOU CERTIFIED?

Everyone who either volunteers or is employed by the Church is required to take the Abuse Awareness Training. This is not an option and the Archdiocese makes sure we are up to date. If you volunteer in anyway with the parish on a regular basis, you must take this class. We will be offering a class on October 7th from 10am to 1pm at St. Joseph's Hall. You may also take the class online at www.virtus.org

Let's make a commitment to keep our children safe!

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Parishioners, we are coming to the end of our Annual Catholic Appeal for this year. For those of you who have not yet sent in your pledges, this is a reminder that there is still time to send them in to the Archdiocese. If you have not yet pledged you can pick up pledge cards in the Parish Office.

Our goal this year is $21,000.00. Please send in your pledges so that we can meet our Parish goal. Any amount collected over our goal will come back to our Parish.

ACA helps support ministries throughout the Archdiocese, especially the important ministry of educating and forming future priests. Thank you for your continued support.
