Prepare the Way for Christ!

This weekend begins the holy season of advent where we prepare for Christ to come at Christmas, in moments of grace and at the end of days. Our job is to prepare to welcome our savior, He who is our fulfillment. Let us welcome Fr. Angelo Marquez as he guides us in preparing the for the Comings of Christ.

Fr. Marquez was born in Gallup, New Mexico, but was raised in Rio Rancho and graduated from Rio Rancho High School in 2008. He began his university studies that same year at the University of New Mexico and transferred to Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio in 2010, and there graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Philosophy in 2012. After having been accepted as a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, he continued with Theological studies in Ohio at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus. He graduated from that institution in 2016. On May 21, 2016 Fr. Angelo was ordained to the priesthood with 4 other men for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. From that time until now, he has been assigned as an associate pastor for the parish of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Clovis. He has, of course, visited Taos in the past as a seminarian, but is very excited to be with us for our upcoming mission during the first week of Advent.

Dear family,

This weekend we begin the holy season of Advent. During Advent, we prepare for Our Lord's comings: at Christmas, in moments of grace and at the end of days. Our parish will be focused this advent on God's hope. It's hard to maintain hope in troubled and uncertain times, but God's hope being infinite, we look to Him to get us through these times, He who is our fulfillment. We begin fostering our hope this Advent with a wonderful mission by Fr. Angelo Marquez. The mission begins Monday night with the mission Mass at 6:30pm in the Main Church. Let us all participate in a message we cannot afford to ignore.

On this first Sunday in Advent, we are called to recognize our need for God. In busy times, such as we are going through now, it's hard to focus on any one thing as we are so busy in our lives, made even busier by the holiday season. The prophet Isaiah asks us to consider a need for change in our lives, for us to loose our "hardness of heart" and the sobering exhortation continues with Our Lord reminding us to "watch!" Advent is a time to put the brakes on and take a moment to recognize where we are heading and what our heart truly longs for. Do you recognize a need to change in your life? Can we be honest that there s room for improvement? Do we know how much we really need God?

In His expectant joy, Fr. Daniel
