Dear family,

Now just hours away from celebrating the birth of Our Lord, The Church gives us for consideration the story of the annunciation. When the Archangel Gabriel announces to Mary that she would be part of God's plan, she becomes scared and confused. Who among us would not be thrown off if an angel appeared to us informing us that we were to do something amazing for God, something fantastic? But the angel commands her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God." In our preparation for Christ's coming(s), it's not unusual to get discouraged, to wonder if He will accept us, to doubt ourselves as to whether or not we are "up to the job." On top of all of this, we live in a broken and hurting world. There are many examples of how those with authority have grown indifferent or abused their power, so why should we trust this Leader and His promises? Because He follows through, we know how the story ends with Mary and how God did not despise a lowly birth, nor a gruesome death. We have every reason to trust in Him, do not be afraid!

In his joy, Fr. Daniel
