Pastor's Corner

Dear family,

What joyous occasion today that we can celebrate the first Mass of Thanksgiving with now Father Pettigrew. This is such a special occasion for him, his family and our parish. Let us remember this day so as to even more heartily pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. God is still working with us through His Church, let us be grateful. And let us pray that Father will do well at his ministry at the parish that has been assigned to him. God bless you, Father "Cowboy!"

There is an interesting line in the Holy Liturgy that I feel we don't always think about: "At the Savior's command and informed by divine teaching, we dare to say, ..." "Dare to say," what's the big deal? I mean is this not the most well known prayer anywhere, are we not Catholic Christians who should be saying this prayer as some part of our regular prayer life? Why must we "dare" to say something that is so familiar and has been repeated so many times? This is because the only way we can approach God is with grateful humility! "Father" is a relational term and when we say this prayer or anytime we call upon God as "Father" we are not merely repeating Christ or the generations of the Church that came before us, but we are talking to OUR FATHER, and if He is "Father," then we are sons and daughters. Do we recognize this? Does this give our heart confidence when we feel afraid? Does this understanding influence our actions and the way we look at the world? Do we actively and intentionally seek to build up our brothers and sisters and serve the Church which is our family and household? Are we grateful to God for adopting us as His own, into His Trinity? In His joy, Fr. Daniel

WELCOME -- BIENVENIDOS

Our parish welcomes this summer, seminarian Joseph Magoffe. He will be entering his fourth year of formation in Seminary at the Pontifical College Josphinum in Columbus, Ohio. He is a native of Tijeras, New Mexico and is also a parishioner at Estancia Valley Catholic Parish in Moriarty.

He graduated from Moriarty High school. He has two brothers, one still in high school and the other is in middle school. His mother and father are originally from Albuquerque. His favorite things are hiking, camping and traveling. He has had very few encounters with Northern New Mexico and is therefore excited to meet all of you and be immersed the history and culture of Taos.

WITH GRATITUDE

I want to thank all parishioners, my dearest family, for showing me such love and support for both my birthday & fifth anniversary of ordination. I could not be more blessed to serve and be with a community like this one.

Thank you & I love you, Fr. Daniel, your pastor.
