Pastor's Corner

Dear family,

This past week I was on retreat with my brother priests of the Archdiocese and it was a wonderful time. It is required by Canon Law that every ordained man take at least a five day retreat each year. Even priests need quiet time with Our Lord to remind them of "why" they do what they do. Two weeks ago our permanent deacon candidates for the diocese were on retreat as well, and they will take a new step in their journey as they are ordained this coming Saturday at 10am at our cathedral. Pray that the ministry of these seventeen men will bring many to experience Christ.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus warns us against that pride that creates division among His body. So unwilling to believe in Jesus and unable to admit His authority and goodness, the scribes accuse Jesus of working with evil to fight evil. Even His own relatives seek to silence Him for fear that their family name will be tarnished. Jesus discredits these approaches as sin against the Spirit for which there is no forgiveness. Are we obstinate to Christ, I know I can be. When He is trying to do His work in our lives and relationships, do we stand in His way? Let's keep trying to be open to God's will and obedient to His promptings, because to stand with God is to be with God, to stand against Him is to find ourselves to be nowhere at all: lost and alone. In His joy, Fr. Daniel
