Father Pat's Page

As you've been reading in the bulletin the last few weeks, I have been challenged to raise funds for the local St. Vincent de Paul Society which ministers to the poor, needy, indigent of our local (Nativity) area. The announcement is repeated in this bulletin. All you need to do is follow the directions given there to make an on-line contribution. This project culminates with a city-wide walk being held on the campus of Pensacola Catholic High School on Saturday, Sept. 24. Thanks.

+

With the Parish Picnic coming up the first weekend of October, don't forget to buy a "Nativity" T-shirt and wear it proudly to the picnic (and everywhere else as well). We have placed an order for more "t's" so stop by the office and buy one for yourself and for all the members of your family.

+

RCIA got off on a great start this past week. We have a large class of men and women who are interested in joining the Catholic faith, returning to the practice of their Catholic faith after some updating, and we also have a few using these sessions as a refresher. Keep them all in your prayers.

+

Just to let you know: On Monday, September 26 I will be leaving for Rome, Italy to participate in a month-long session for priests. I applied for the program and was accepted so I am most excited to attend with other priests from across the USA. Part of this experience includes: a trip to the Holy Land for one week, daily sessions with renowned professors, possible concelebration of Mass with Pope Francis, participation in one of the Holy Father's Wednesday Audiences and tours of the many Churches throughout the city of Rome. More next week on prayer requests you might want me to take with me and place at St. Peter's.

Anthony Provost, Catholic Argo/Nativity Parishioner. Anthony is a collegiate soccer player for UWF, navigates a rigorous athletic schedule and pre-med undergraduate studies, but still maintains a vibrant faith life. You can read more about Anthony's commitment to his faith and to Catholic Campus Ministry in the September/October 2016 edition of The Catholic Compass.
