More St. Andrew and Beyond...

St. Andrew Religious Education (RE) and Adult Faith Formation

You'll notice on tables in the Parish Hall -- BOOKS and ITEMS for SALE at $5 each. We welcome your support as it will benefit the children in our Religious Education program.

You'll also notice the book and sign-up sheet for our Next Book Club...

Our next book club book is ... The Shack by Wm Paul Young. This book has been around for a while, but if you have been wanting to get the book and haven't, there are 10 copies for sale in the parish hall at a cost of $10 each. If you have the book and read it a while ago, it is a good book to pick-up and read again. The book club will meet to discuss this book on Tuesday, September 11th at 9 a.m. in the morning and 7 p.m. in the evening. All are welcome to sign-up and join us at either session.

Stewardship: Volunteers are the backbone

St. Andrew is very fortunate to have the number of volunteers who contribute their Time, Talent and Treasure to our parish.

Stewardship is sometimes seen only as giving more to the offertory collection. However, stewardship is more than just contributing money, it is a way of looking at life. When a person has a profound sense of gratitude resulting from seeing everything – everything – as a gift from God, the individual is motivated to return some of this abundance to Him.

Begin with prayer. Each day of our lives is filled with responsibilities and activities. Family, work, school and our community involvements are many.

Ask God how you can dedicate all of these efforts to Him. Thank Him for your talents, for the energy and joy you have for the things you do, and ask Him to forgive you for the times you fail. Please prayerfully consider now what you are able to share with others – your time, talent and treasure.
