

PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

There will be many bittersweet moments during the next few months. It is my 12th, and last, Easter with you as your Pastor. Transitions can be difficult if we have a fear of letting go and think that we are alone, and/or abandoned.

The Easter season gives us reason to have hope. The resurrected Lord helps us see beyond the present, while recognizing that He is in our midst walking with us.

Jesus reminds His disciples and all of us, "Do not be afraid...I am with you."

Below is the Easter letter from Cardinal Cupich. He helps remind us that the Church is larger than St. Hubert Parish. We are part of the Catholic Church.

During this Easter Season we pray not only for ourselves, but especially for those who live in trouble spots around the globe, and have a daily occurrence of violence.

Happy Easter to all of you.

Rev. Robert C. Rizzo

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Office of the Archbishop
835 North Rush Street
Chicago, IL 60611-2030
312.534.8230
archchicago.org

Easter Sunday 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord,

This year's Easter gospel comes to us from Saint Matthew. He describes Easter morning. Women go to the tomb at dawn on the first day of the week. An angel appears and speaks to them: "Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples."

In these words, we find the essential Easter message directed to each one of us today in our uncertain world and amid the painful burdens we carry: do not be afraid, come and see, go and tell.

Easter eases our fear when we come to know God's triumph in the resurrection of Jesus. Easter invites us to come and see with fresh eyes what God has done in conquering sin and death. Easter summons us to go and share our faith and hope with others.

When we hear this message and recognize Jesus Christ as the Risen Lord of life, how can we not praise and thank God? How can we not walk together with new confidence and hope? In a time when violence and death-dealing forces seem rampant in the world and even in our own neighborhoods, we truly need new confidence and hope. And when we listen to the Lord, as we have been trying to do in the Archdiocese of Chicago, to seek directions for the renewal of our local Church, we surely need new confidence and hope.

Pray with me that we may all truly hear the words—do not be afraid, come and see, go and tell—and so draw new life from them for our loved ones, our world, our city and metropolitan area, our Church, and our very selves.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Card. Blase J. Cupich".

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich Archbishop of Chicago